1.3.3 Which is artificially lighted by any means other than electricity.

1.3.4 Which is heated by other than the use of steam or hot water circulating systems and the boiler is located outside the space where spraying, dipping or immersing is carried on.

Rule 2. Definitions.

2.1 The term "SPRAY or SPRAYING SPACE" "DIPPING SPACE or IMMERSING SPACE" when used in these rules shall mean that portion of the premises used for the actual work of spraying, dipping or immersing any article or thing with any flammable paints, varnishes, lacquers or any other flammable substances, mixtures or compounds, commonly used for painting, varnishing, staining or similar purposes in any booth or room.

2.2 The term "CABINET BOOTH" when used in these rules shall mean a compartment with a back, top and two sides of incombustible materials over a substantial metal frame and equipped with air exhaust facilities, located within a room or any portion of any premises where spraying with any flammable paints, varnishes, lacquers or any other flammable substances, mixtures or compounds commonly used for painting, varnishing, staining or similar purposes is carried on.

2.3 The term "CANOPY BOOTH or HOOD" when used in these rules shall mean an installation consisting of a metal canopy or hood, without any side or end panels enclosing the object sprayed and an air exhaust system under which spraying with any flammable paints, varnishes, lacquers or any other flammable substances, mixtures or compounds commonly used for painting, varnishing, staining or similar purposes is carried on.

2.4 The term "TUNNEL BOOTH" when used in these rules shall mean a compartment consisting of two sides and top, equipped with an air exhaust system in which spraying with any flammable paints, varnishes, lacquers or any other flammable substances, mixtures or compounds commonly used for painting, varnishing, staining or similar purposes is carried on.

For requirements of ventilation of storage rooms see Rule 4.4.1.

3.2 Air shall be admitted to the spraying, dipping or immersing spaces in an amount equal to the capacity of the fan or fans and in such a manner as to avoid short-circuiting the path of air in the working zone of such spaces. Exhaust fans shall be kept running constantly while spraying, mixing or dipping. Exhaust fan control shall be interconnected with spray gun so as to operate simultaneously. Exhaust fans shall, in addition, be arranged to operate independently of spray gun. Ventilation Equipment shall be kept in operation for a sufficient length of time thereafter to exhaust all vapors, fumes or residues of spraying materials from the spray booth, dip space or drying room. Air admitted to the spraying, dipping, immersing, drying spaces or storage rooms shall be fresh air taken from the outside of the building.

3.3 EQUIPMENT. Motors shall be located outside of spraying, dipping or immersing spaces except as provided in Rule 4.

Rule 4. Specification for Spray Booths, Spray Rooms, Dip and Immersing Rooms, Drying Equipment and Material Storage Rooms.

Where such rooms are located over wooden floors, such wooden floors shall be surfaced with 1" of grout adequately reinforced or a mixture of Portland cement, and sand similarly reinforced. Ceilings over such rooms shall be protected by $\frac{5}{8}$ " unsanded gypsum plaster or $\frac{7}{8}$ " of cement or sanded gypsum plaster on approved 3.0 lb metal lath or other equivalent fire resisting ceiling protection.

RULES

Ventilation, lighting and heating for these rooms shall comply with the requirements of these rules. Where additional fire fighting equipment is necessary such equipment shall be furnished in accordance with the direction of the Fire Commissioner. Floor drains leading to the house draining system or the public sewer shall not be permitted. Dip tanks shall be provided with hinged metal covers held open by a fusible link, such covers to be equipped with an opening to permit automatic flooding of the tank with fire extinguishing media of a type and so located as the Fire Commissioner shall direct. Where the work process, such as conveyORIZED operation, makes the use of a cover impractical, the dip tank and drain boards shall be protected by an adequate extinguishing system designed for manual and automatic operation satisfactory to the Fire Commissioner and such conveyor shall be interlocked with the extinguishing system so that in the event the extinguishing system is activated, the conveyor action shall be stopped.

- 4.1.2 Panels of polished wired glass or plate-glass at least one-quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of an inch thick, not exceeding seven hundred and twenty (720) square inches in area and not more than forty-eight (48") inches in any linear dimension may be used in the sides of a spray booth or room.
- 4.1.3 The inner sides of walls, ceilings and the floors of all spraying or dipping spaces shall have a smooth surface.
- 4.1.4 All openings in spray, dip or immersing rooms shall be protected by fireproof opening protective assemblies. Windows opening on a street may be used to provide ventilation but no window on a lot line or less than 20 ft. from any opening in a wall of an adjacent building shall be permitted except when the subject room is more than 20 ft., in the horizontal plane, above an adjoining building.
- 4.1.5 Ferrous metals used in the construction of spraying, dipping or immersing spaces shall be thoroughly painted on the inside or be galvanized.
- 4.1.6 All spraying, dipping or immersing spaces shall be so constructed that at least three (3) feet of clear working space shall always be maintained for each operator spraying, dipping or immersing the material being processed.

4.2 STORAGE ROOMS.

- 4.2.1 Storage rooms shall be constructed of fireproof or fire resisting material and shall have a window opening to the outer air but such window shall not be on a lot line, enclosed court, nor opposite within twenty feet of windows of adjacent buildings nor part of the same premises, such window openings to be fireproofed and lower half provided with open louvers or ventilated by metal duct or fan at least 8 inches in diameter. The floors of all storage rooms shall be of incombustible non-ferrous materials. The sill of the door shall be at least 6 inches above the finished floor. All doors to be tin-clad, approved, fireproof and self-closing.

The lighting equipment shall comply with rule 4.5.2.2 and shall have an electric switch located outside the room. Immediately adjacent to such room shall be provided such portable fire extinguishing equipment for use within the storage room as the Fire Commissioner shall direct.

4.3 DRYING EQUIPMENT.

- 4.3.1 Gas Fired Drying Ovens. Gas fired drying ovens shall be of a type as approved by the Board. Such ovens shall be constructed of metal and incombustible materials so designed as to preclude the direct application of flame to the materials in process. Ventilation shall be provided for each oven of sufficient capacity to maintain an oven vapor concentration at all times during the drying process of less than $\frac{1}{4}$ the low explosive limit of the solvent used. All oven openings shall be maintained at a negative pressure relative to room pressure for inward flow. The controls for the safety exhaust and recirculating fans shall be properly interlocked with the gas supply line so that when the gas is flowing the fans are in operation. A time delay relay shall be installed to provide a minimum of four oven volume changes with fresh air and in the case of an indirect fired type of oven simultaneous purging of the combustion chamber before the ignition system can be energized and gas flow started. Each oven shall be equipped with gas burning equipment approved for such use and with electrical controls so arranged as to shut off the gas valve when ignition fails or the gas supply pressure drops to 2 inches of water.

The use of a continuous gas pilot light is prohibited unless an automatic gas shut off valve is provided which will shut the gas off at the pilot light when the flame is extinguished or the supply of gas cut off. Electrical pilot ignition shall be of the continuous type or equal in performance, designed for use in high temperatures, with controls so interlocked as to shut off the gas supply when current is interrupted. An auxiliary manually operated gas shut off valve shall be located not nearer than 25 feet from the oven so as to control the gas supply in the event of an emergency. Such ovens shall be adequately insulated on all sides and top to limit the maximum surface temperature to 140°F and to 160°F on the base, unless the floor is protected by a 3 inch mat of reinforced concrete placed over and bonded into the existing concrete floor and projecting not less than 6 inches outside the projected area of the equipment or unless an unenclosed clear air space not less than 4 inches above the concrete floor is maintained between the floor and the underside of the oven.

- 4.3.1.1 The burner section of gas fired drying ovens shall not be located nearer than 25 feet from spraying or dipping spaces except when separated by fire proof construction, in which case the distance between burner section and spray or dip space shall be not less than 25 feet measured in the shortest line of travel.

4.3.2 ELECTRIC INFRA-RED RAY DRYING OVENS.

- 4.3.2.1 Electric Infra Red Ray Drying Ovens shall be of a type as approved by the Board. Such ovens shall be constructed of electric equipment installed in accordance with the National Electric Code and the requirements of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity. Ovens when erected shall be placed on concrete floors without any additional protection, provided that at least 12 inches of clear space above the floor is provided to permit adequate ventilation.

- 4.3.2.1.1 In drying processed material involving the evaporation of considerable amounts of flammable solvents by infra-red lamps, such installations shall not be confined in small rooms unless such rooms are thoroughly ventilated by a power driven ventilation system of sufficient capacity to maintain a vapor concentration at all times during the drying process of less than $\frac{1}{4}$ the low explosive limit of the solvent used; the controls of the ventilation system to be so interlocked with the Infra-Red Ray System that the latter cannot function unless the ventilating system is in operation. When equipped with duct ventilating system, the Infra-Red Ray Oven shall be adequately secured so as to prevent moving.

4.3.2.1.2 Where the evaporation of a considerable amount of flammable vapors are involved, ventilated hoods located as near to the floor as practicable or enclosures shall be provided at the initial stage of the process with adequate exhaust system to discharge the primary evaporation from the solvents to the outer air, so that when the processed material progresses through the lamp drying tunnels only a comparatively small amount of solvent is left for evaporation. A space between such ventilating section and the drying section shall be maintained.

4.3.2.1.3 Lamps and other electrical equipment shall be kept free from flammable deposits and adequate cleaning shall be maintained.

4.3.2.1.4 Lamp and resistance heater type drying units shall be separated from spraying and dipping processes complying with these rules by a distance of at least 15 feet or shall be installed in a separate fireproof room.

4.3.2.1.5 Controls shall be arranged so that the lamps in the tunnels will be shut off automatically if and when the conveyor stops.

4.3.2.1.6 Where there are no conveyors and the material being processed is left stationary in the dryer there shall be an excessive temperature switch to shut off the lamps or resistance heaters to avoid overheating the material being processed if it is not removed from the dryer in time.

4.3.2.1.7 Material to be processed on the conveyors shall be rigidly supported so as not to be liable to displacement and cause lamp breakage and short circuits. Where there are no conveyors, materials should be fixed on dollies running on tracks or other equivalent method to accomplish the same result.

4.3.3 The temperature of the air contacting the processed material or of the material itself shall not be higher than that to which such material can be safely subjected.

4.3.4 Such fire fighting equipment suitable for electrical and solvent vapor fires shall be provided as the Fire Commissioner may direct.

4.4 SPECIFICATIONS FOR DUCTS, PIPES AND FANS.

4.4.1 All ducts used for ventilating spray, dip or immersing spaces shall be constructed of approved incombustible materials or metal of not less than the following gauges of metal:

Ducts twenty-four (24") inches or less in diameter No. 22 gauge.

Ducts over twenty-four (24") inches and not over thirty-six (36") inches in diameter No. 20 gauge.

Ducts exceeding thirty-six (36") inches in diameter No. 18 gauge.

4.4.2 Ducts shall be strongly constructed and be installed in a workmanlike manner. They shall be rigidly supported.

4.4.3 Ventilating ducts shall run as directly as practicable to the outer air and be protected with a hood against the weather. The exhaust terminal or hood shall also be protected with a screen of copper or bronze with a mesh not larger than one-quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$ ") inch.

Fire Drill Rules, Adopted by the Board of Standards and Appeals, October 5, 1923

(593-23-SR)

DEFINITION OF "FIRE DRILL"

The method and practice of the systematic and orderly vacating of a building by its occupants in case of emergency, panic or fire in the least possible time—by the nearest safe means of exit—and the use of fire appliances which shall be provided for the extinguishing or retarding of fire and the safeguarding of human life.

Rule 1.

In all buildings as defined in Article 1, Section 10 of the Labor Law in which fire drills are required pursuant to Section 279 thereof and in any other building in which such drills are required by the Fire Commissioner pursuant to the power conferred in section 491 of the New York City Charter, it shall be the duty of the owners, lessees or tenants to conduct fire drills monthly and at such other times as the Fire Commissioner may direct.

For the purpose of conducting such fire drills the owner or tenants shall appoint from among their employees such responsible and dependable persons, male or female, who shall efficiently perform the duties of the various positions of the fire drill organization, as specified on the accompanying chart.

It shall be the duty of the owner or tenant to enter in the blank spaces provided for that purpose in said chart the names of persons so selected and post said chart and copies of the rules in a conspicuous place.

Rule 2. Duties of Foreman.

The Foreman or Person in Charge shall direct, enforce and have full charge of the "Fire Drill" in every factory on each floor. Each day before work is begun he shall see that extinguishers, fire hose, fire buckets, etc., are in readiness for use, exit doors are unlocked, aisles are free from obstruction, that stairways, halls, etc., are properly lighted, and shall remedy any dangerous condition found to exist. Immediately after work is commenced he shall check up the Fire Drill Organization list and note if the regularly assigned persons are present; if any are found to be absent, he shall assign other employees (if practicable) to perform their duties.

He shall immediately notify new employees of the existence of the Fire Drill Organization and give them the necessary instructions as to the duties they are to perform, etc.

He shall be familiar with the operation and location of the interior alarm signal box on his floor.

He shall listen for the test signal each morning at the appointed hour and in the event of the test signal not being heard he shall communicate with the superintendent or other person in charge of the building and advise him of the fact. The (Floor Captain's) Foreman's orders are final as to the carrying out of the fire drill on his particular floor.

Rule 3. Duties of Watchmen.

The WATCHMEN shall see that all doors and windows are closed so as to prevent the spread of fire. The WATCHMEN shall be the only persons permitted to remain on the floor during the progress of a fire drill and do so at their own risk. For ordinary purposes only one watchman and a substitute shall be designated. In special cases, however, extra watchmen may be assigned by consent in writing from Fire Commissioner.

Rule 4. Duties of Searchers.

The MALE AND FEMALE SEARCHERS shall search all toilets, dressing rooms and emergency rooms used and frequented by their sex and all other portions of the floor and order all persons, except those authorized to remain, to leave the premises. They are to take care of and assist all persons who may faint or be disabled.

SEARCHERS shall leave the floor immediately after the last squad leaves.

Rule 5. Duties of Street Alarm Box Runner.

The STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall be familiar with the location of the nearest city fire alarm box and know how it is operated.

In ordinary practice fire drills the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall report to the Foreman for orders, and if his services are not required he shall promptly file out of the premises with the other occupants.

Only when a fire actually occurs on his floor, or when ordered to do so by the Foreman, shall the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER proceed to the street alarm box and send in the fire alarm.

Rule 6. Duties of Fire Brigade.

The fire brigade shall have full charge of the operation of all auxiliary fire fighting apparatus and shall endeavor to extinguish, or at least hold in check until the arrival of the Fire Department, any fire that may occur. When it is necessary for the fire brigade to respond to different floors in the building they shall not use the stairways or fire escapes while the occupants are escaping from the premises.

Rule 7. Duties of Exit Guards.

The EXIT GUARDS shall station themselves at all exit doors leading to fire escapes, stairways, and other means of escape immediately upon the sounding of the alarm. There shall be two guards for each exit, if practicable; one to stand in the hallway holding back the door and the other directly inside on the floor. They are to keep the exit doors open and direct the movements of the persons using these exits and prevent congestion.

EXIT GUARDS shall remain at their stations until all of the occupants of the building have passed their station. Then close their doors and pass out of the building. Upon signal for the occupants to return, EXIT GUARDS shall take their designated stations and remain there until all persons have returned to their respective floors.

Rule 8. Duties of Squad Monitors.

The SQUAD MONITORS, as soon as the alarm is sounded, shall see that the employees under their charge quickly form into line, two abreast, and numbering not more than thirty to each squad. They shall see that all aisles and passageways are cleared of obstructions.

Note: Chairs, stools, baskets, etc., should be pushed under or placed on top of work benches.

MONITORS shall proceed at the head of their respective squads to the exit assigned, and then march up or down the stairs or to other exits as directed by the EXIT GUARDS.

On reaching the sidewalk MONITORS shall keep their squads in order and lead them a reasonable distance from the building, so as not to cause congestion and interference with fire apparatus. When the proper signal is given they shall return to their respective floors at head of their squads.

MONITORS will at all times see that those under their charge conduct themselves in a respectable and orderly manner.

Where dual operation interior fire alarm systems are installed as permitted under Rule 10.1 of the interior fire alarm rules of the Board of Standards and Appeals, the fire drill conducted each month shall include all of the persons on the premises engaged at work for a factory, and drills shall be conducted at least twice, each year in which all of the persons on the premises shall participate simultaneously.

Rule 10. Duties of Owner.

It shall be the duty of the OWNER, LESSEE OR TENANT OF THE BUILDING or his authorized agent or their representatives to personally observe that the "Fire Drill" is held simultaneously on every floor of the building and the participation therein of every occupant of such building. Any FIRE DRILL in which all of the occupants do not participate shall not be considered as complying with the LAW, except as otherwise provided in these rules.

The person or persons representing the OWNERS, LESSEE OR TENANT, who supervises the FIRE DRILL at the building shall submit to an examination by the Division of Fire Prevention as to their experience and general fitness for such duties, and shall be so certified in writing by the FIRE COMMISSIONER.

daily, immediately after the beginning of business, and to see that all apparatus operated by springs, requiring winding are rewound after each alarm and kept in normal condition for operation.

Rule 11. Duties of Engineer.

Whenever it is necessary to test the fire alarm system at any other time of the day, owing to repairs, etc., being made, the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING will first notify all Foremen of the several floors of the intended test and likewise notify them when the repairs, etc. are completed. This precaution is taken to prevent confusion and excitement, also misunderstanding of the alarm signals.

It shall also be the duty of the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING to sound the interior alarm system at irregular intervals, but not less than once each calendar month, for the purpose of holding practice fire drills. He shall keep on the premises a record of such drills, showing the date when held and the required time for all occupants to reach the street or a point of safety outside the building.

The PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING must immediately acquaint new tenants of the existence of the "Fire Drill" Organization and its purport.

Officials, who are charged with the enforcement of the laws, ordinances and rules relating to buildings in the City of New York shall be bound by resolutions and, before granting a permit or taking any other action, shall see that there are no misstatements as to facts and that the conditions of the resolution are observed. Any administrative official discovering any misstatement of essential information is required to notify the Board, in order that it may take such actions as the circumstances require.

2. Any communication purporting to be an application or appeal shall be regarded as a mere notice of intention to seek relief and shall have no force or effect until it is made in the form required, except as provided in Article VI.

3. Discourteous or disorderly conduct shall be regarded as a breach of his privileges and shall be dealt with as the Chairman deems proper. Subject to the direction of the Board, the Director shall enforce these rules and supervise the Sergeant at Arms in maintaining order and decorum in the hearing room and lobbies during all public hearings.

2. With the consent of the Board, any applicant may withdraw his application or appeal at any time prior to determination thereon, but, if a motion has been made, and be pending, such motion shall have precedence.

3. No application or appeal which has been dismissed or denied can be considered again except on a motion adopted to reconsider the vote or to restore to the Calendar.

If, on motion of a Commissioner, adopted by three affirmative votes, the request is granted, the case shall be put on the docket and calendared for rehearing.

In all cases the request for rehearing shall be in writing, reciting the reasons for the request, and shall be accompanied by the necessary data and diagrams. Such request shall be filed with the Director who shall set a date when the request for restoration to the Calendar shall be submitted to the Board, of which date the person making the request shall be notified.

RULES

Fire Drill Rules, Adopted by the Board of Standards and Appeals, October 5, 1923

(593-23-SR)

DEFINITION OF "FIRE DRILL"

The method and practice of the systematic and orderly vacating of a building by its occupants in case of emergency, panic or fire in the least possible time—by the nearest safe means of exit—and the use of fire appliances which shall be provided for the extinguishing or retarding of fire and the safeguarding of human life.

Rule 1.

In all buildings as defined in Article 1, Section 10 of the Labor Law in which fire drills are required pursuant to Section 279 thereof and in any other building in which such drills are required by the Fire Commissioner pursuant to the power conferred in section 491 of the New York City Charter, it shall be the duty of the owners, lessees or tenants to conduct fire drills monthly and at such other times as the Fire Commissioner may direct.

For the purpose of conducting such fire drills the owner or tenants shall appoint from among their employees such responsible and dependable persons, male or female, who shall efficiently perform the duties of the various positions of the fire drill organization, as specified on the accompanying chart.

It shall be the duty of the owner or tenant to enter in the blank spaces provided for that purpose in said chart the names of persons so selected and post said chart and copies of the rules in a conspicuous place.

Rule 2. Duties of Foreman.

The Foreman or Person in Charge shall direct, enforce and have full charge of the "Fire Drill" in every factory on each floor. Each day before work is begun he shall see that extinguishers, fire hose, fire buckets, etc., are in readiness for use, exit doors are unlocked, aisles are free from obstruction, that stairways, halls, etc., are properly lighted, and shall remedy any dangerous condition found to exist. Immediately after work is commenced he shall check up the Fire Drill Organization list and note if the regularly assigned persons are present; if any are found to be absent, he shall assign other employees (if practicable) to perform their duties.

He shall immediately notify new employees of the existence of the Fire Drill Organization and give them the necessary instructions as to the duties they are to perform, etc.

He shall be familiar with the operation and location of the interior alarm signal box on his floor.

He shall listen for the test signal each morning at the appointed hour and in the event of the test signal not being heard he shall communicate with the superintendent or other person in charge of the building and advise him of the fact. The (Floor Captain's) Foreman's orders are final as to the carrying out of the fire drill on his particular floor.

Rule 3. Duties of Watchmen.

The WATCHMEN shall see that all doors and windows are closed so as to prevent the spread of fire. The WATCHMEN shall be the only persons permitted to remain on the floor during the progress of a fire drill and do so at their own risk. For ordinary purposes only one watchman and a substitute shall be designated. In special cases, however, extra watchmen may be assigned by consent in writing from Fire Commissioner.

Rule 4. Duties of Searchers.

The MALE AND FEMALE SEARCHERS shall search all toilets, dressing rooms and emergency rooms used and frequented by their sex and all other portions of the floor and order all persons, except those authorized to remain, to leave the premises. They are to take care of and assist all persons who may faint or be disabled.

SEARCHERS shall leave the floor immediately after the last squad leaves.

Rule 5. Duties of Street Alarm Box Runner.

The STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall be familiar with the location of the nearest city fire alarm box and know how it is operated.

In ordinary practice fire drills the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall report to the Foreman for orders, and if his services are not required he shall promptly file out of the premises with the other occupants.

Only when a fire actually occurs on his floor, or when ordered to do so by the Foreman, shall the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER proceed to the street alarm box and send in the fire alarm.

Rule 6. Duties of Fire Brigade.

The fire brigade shall have full charge of the operation of all auxiliary fire fighting apparatus and shall endeavor to extinguish, or at least hold in check until the arrival of the Fire Department, any fire that may occur. When it is necessary for the fire brigade to respond to different floors in the building they shall not use the stairways or fire escapes while the occupants are escaping from the premises.

Rule 7. Duties of Exit Guards.

The EXIT GUARDS shall station themselves at all exit doors leading to fire escapes, stairways, and other means of escape immediately upon the sounding of the alarm. There shall be two guards for each exit, if practicable; one to stand in the hallway holding back the door and the other directly inside on the floor. They are to keep the exit doors open and direct the movements of the persons using these exits and prevent congestion.

EXIT GUARDS shall remain at their stations until all of the occupants of the building have passed their station. Then close their doors and pass out of the building. Upon signal for the occupants to return, EXIT GUARDS shall take their designated stations and remain there until all persons have returned to their respective floors.

Rule 8. Duties of Squad Monitors.

The SQUAD MONITORS, as soon as the alarm is sounded, shall see that the employees under their charge quickly form into line, two abreast, and numbering not more than thirty to each squad. They shall see that all aisles and passageways are cleared of obstructions.

Note: Chairs, stools, baskets, etc., should be pushed under or placed on top of work benches.

MONITORS shall proceed at the head of their respective squads to the exit assigned, and then march up or down the stairs or to other exits as directed by the EXIT GUARDS.

On reaching the sidewalk MONITORS shall keep their squads in order and lead them a reasonable distance from the building, so as not to cause congestion and interference with fire apparatus. When the proper signal is given they shall return to their respective floors at head of their squads.

MONITORS will at all times see that those under their charge conduct themselves in a respectable and orderly manner.

Rule 9. Holding of Drills.

FIRE DRILLS shall be held at least once each month at varied hours of the day, and all of the occupants shall participate therein simultaneously. Such drills shall conduct all occupants to a place of safety.

Where dual operation interior fire alarm systems are installed as permitted under Rule 10.1 of the interior fire alarm rules of the Board of Standards and Appeals, the fire drill conducted each month shall include all of the persons on the premises engaged at work for a factory, and drills shall be conducted at least twice, each year in which all of the persons on the premises shall participate simultaneously.

Rule 10. Duties of Owner.

It shall be the duty of the OWNER, LESSEE OR

TENANT OF THE BUILDING or his authorized agent or their representatives to personally observe that the "Fire Drill" is held simultaneously on every floor of the building and the participation therein of every occupant of such building. Any FIRE DRILL in which all of the occupants do not participate shall not be considered as complying with the LAW, except as otherwise provided in these rules.

The person or persons representing the OWNERS, LESSEE OR TENANT, who supervises the FIRE DRILL at the building shall submit to an examination by the Division of Fire Prevention as to their experience and general fitness for such duties, and shall be so certified in writing by the FIRE COMMISSIONER.

It shall be the duty of the ENGINEER, SUPERINTENDENT or other PERSON IN CHARGE, of a building having an interior fire alarm system to test such system daily, immediately after the beginning of business, and to see that all apparatus operated by springs, requiring winding are rewound after each alarm and kept in normal condition for operation.

Rule 11. Duties of Engineer.

Whenever it is necessary to test the fire alarm system at any other time of the day, owing to repairs, etc., being made, the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING will first notify all Foremen of the several floors of the intended test and likewise notify them when the repairs, etc. are completed. This precaution is taken to prevent confusion and excitement, also misunderstanding of the alarm signals.

It shall also be the duty of the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING to sound the interior alarm system at irregular intervals, but not less than once each calendar month, for the purpose of holding practice fire drills. He shall keep on the premises a record of such drills, showing the date when held and the required time for all occupants to reach the street or a point of safety outside the building.

The PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING must immediately acquaint new tenants of the existence of the "Fire Drill" Organization and its purport.

Rule 12. Registration.

The name and address of every person, corporation or co-partnership, that will, under professional service, carry on the trade, business or calling of establishing, maintaining or supervising the "Fire Drill" shall be registered in the Fire Department, which Department shall, upon evidence of fitness, grant a certificate to that effect.

The complete series have been tested and approved by the AGA to operate at a higher static pressure in addition to the previously approved standard static pressures.

The BGH series of furnaces include the addition of a smaller Model, BGH-50. This furnace is of the same design as the other BGH furnaces. It is comprised of two heat exchanger sections and two burners, and has an input rate of 50,000 BTU per hour. The following are the changed designations of the BGH furnaces:

BGH-50XD	50,000	40,000
BGH-75XD	75,000	60,000
BGH-75X	75,000	60,000
BGH-100X	100,000	80,000
BGH-100XD	100,000	80,000
BGH-125X	125,000	100,000
BGH-150X	150,000	120,000
BGH-175X	175,000	140,000
BGH-200X	200,000	160,000

The BGK-RB series of gas furnaces incorporates minor changes to component parts of heat exchanger, in order to effect the utilization of these at higher static pressures, and a change in casing design. The complete series have been tested and approved by the AGA to operate at a higher static pressure in addition to the previously approved standard static pressures. The changes have been designated by a change in model numbers, as follows:

BGR-100	100,000	80,000
BGR-125	125,000	100,000
BGR-150	150,000	120,000

Suffix D—designates direct drive blower.

Suffix A—designates higher static pressure than normal, consisting of .4 static pressure for BGH-50D, BGH-75D and 5 static pressure for all other models.

Also, minor changes have been made to the BGH-X Series casing design and designate these as the GHS Series. The heat exchanger, burners, manifold, blower and motors are the same as used in the BGH-X Series.

The GHS Series designation are as follows:

Model No.	BTU Input	BTU Output
GHS-50	50,000	40,000
GHS-50D
GHS-50A
GHS-75	75,000	60,000

GHS-100D
GHS-100A
GHS-125	125,000	100,000
GHS-125A

Suffix D—designates direct drive blower.

Suffix A—designates higher static pressure than normal.

These units have been tested and approved by AGA.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends that the resolution adopted April 5, 1960 and amended September 20, 1960 under Calendar Number 607-58-SA be reopened and amended so as to include the Models BGR-75D, BGR-75, BGR-100D, BGR-100, BGR-125, BGR-150; BGH-50XD, BGH-75XD, BGH-75X, BGH-100X, BGH-100D, BGH-125X, BGH-150X, BGH-175X, BGH-200X; GHS-50, GHS-50D, GHS-5A, GHS-75, GHS-75D, GHS-75A, GHS-100, GHS-100D, GHS-100A, GHS-125 and GHS-125A, gas-fired warm air furnaces, on condition that the requirements of the resolution adopted April 5, 1960 and amended September 20, 1960 under Calendar Number 607-58-SA be complied with.

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads:
331-60-SM—Wayne Iron Works, Wayne, Penna., filed for approval of the material known as Wayne Rolling Grandstand and Wayne Folding Bleachers, Models 30, 50 and 70, under the provisions of C26-191.0 Administrative Building Code.

USE: Folding bleachers for indoor seating.

DESCRIPTION: The Model 30 is of unit construction consisting of 1½" O.D. by 11 gauge welded steel tubing understructure, footboards of 2" x 10" Douglas Fir lumber, seatboards of 1¼" x 10" lumber and riser board of 1" x 8" lumber, all connected to form one integral assembly. Each column of the unit, except the stationary rear column, is equipped with a 4" diameter wheel made of a rubber faced plastic composition.

The depth per row is 22"; rise per row is 8½"; and the seat height is 17½".

The Model 50 is a unit consisting of steel understructure, footboards, seatboards and vertical risers. The seat board and the footboard are 1¼" x 10" and the riser board is 1¼" and of a sufficient width to fully close the verticle gap between corresponding foot and seat board. Each column of the unit, except the stationary rear column are equipped with two 3" diameter wheels made of rubber faced plastic composition.

Each unit is equipped with rotating alignment frames to keep the rows parallel at all times and also each unit is equipped with a keyed cylinder lock to lock it automatically in both open and closed position. In addition, the front row of each unit is equipped with self setting rubber brakes.

The Model 70 is designed for a continuous seating automatic power operation.

The section consists of a continuous, uninterrupted length of seats and the boards are so arranged that no breaks or gaps occur in the entire length of the bleacher.

The opening and closing is controlled by a spring loaded key switch and the power system is so arranged that one or more rows may be used at any time and the movement to the extreme open or closed position is controlled by limit switches.

The power is transmitted from the motor to drive reels and rigid pusher bars by means of a steel jack shaft and chain drive linkage.

INSPECTION AND TEST: The design is such that the seating is designed to support, in addition to its own weight, a live load of 120 lbs./linear foot of seatboard plus 120 lbs./linear foot of footboard and to resist by adequate diagonal bracing a horizontal sway load applied lengthwise to the seats of 24 lbs./linear foot of seatboard.

A sample of the bleachers was tested, showing a loading of 240 lbs./sq. ft., side sway load of 800 lbs./row per section and a back to front sway load 300 lbs./row per section.

RECOMMENDATION: On the basis of the examination and the data filed by the applicant, the Committee on Test recommends the approval of the material known as Wayne Rolling Grandstand and Wayne Folding Bleachers, Models 30 and 50, for use in New York City, on condition that the device be constructed in accordance with this report and installed in accordance with the requirements of the pertinent section of Chapter 26, Administrative Building Code, provided that the height of the bleacher shall be limited to six tiers, that the bleachers shall be adequately anchored to the wall, irrespective of the number of tiers; that no seat occupant shall pass more than seven seats without the intervention of an aisle; that the aisle shall be a minimum width of 6 feet 2 inches; that the aisles shall be provided with steps adequately secured when the bleachers are in use to the main floor; and further that the bleachers bear a label, permanently affixed, reading "Approved by the Board of Standards and Appeals for use in New York City under Calendar Number 331-60-SM".

In view of the above limitations as to aisles, the Committee finds that it cannot recommend the approval of the Model 70.

ACTION OF BOARD—Appliance approved in accordance with the report and recommendation of Committee on Test.

THE VOTE—

Negative: 0

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads: 271-62-SA—The Liquidometer Corporation, Long Island City, New York, filed for approval of the appliance known as the Levelometer Master, Large and Small Models with High and Low contact switches under the provisions of section C19-50.b.10 Administrative Code.

USE: Liquid level indicating devices for use in petroleum bulk storage terminals.

DESCRIPTION: The Levelometer devices are designed to indicate on a calibrated dial gauge the quantity of product in a bulk storage tank to which they are connected. They also provide for visual and audible alarms to be energized by means of electrical contact switches when the tank is being filled and the liquid reaches 95% of capacity and again when it reaches 98% of capacity.

The devices operate by means of a continuous flow of compressed air supplied through a filter-regulator valve and a choke valve which is an orifice flow valve made with an .010 inch orifice. This is connected with 1/4 inch metal tubing to an air line bubbler which shows flow of air from the choke valve and then connection is made to a 3/4 inch iron pipe installed through the roof of the tank and extending down to within 6 inches of the tank bottom. The air pressure supplied to this pipe is regulated to approximately 1 psi. per foot of tank height. The pressure inside of the pipe builds up to the pressure developed by the head of liquid. This pressure which is a measure of the volume of liquid in the tank is transmitted to the Levelometer where through a bellows and linkage it turns an indicator on a calibrated scale to show volume of liquid. Two other bellows are installed in the Levelometer which are connected to high level electrical contact switches. One switch is set to close at 95% of tank capacity and the other at 98% of tank capacity to actuate visual and audible alarms.

The excess air pressure in the 3/4 inch pipe escapes through the liquid and out the tank vent which is of the open type.

The Levelometer, as described may be installed up to 1000 feet from the tank being gauged.

INSPECTION AND TEST: An installation was inspected at 37-30 Review Ave., Long Island City. It was noted that the storage tanks were part of a heavy oil burning system used on the premises.

Present were Assistant Engineer George F. Sklenarik and Mr. Robert N. Gierse representing the applicant.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends the approval of the appliance known as Levelometer Master, Large and Small Models with High and Low contact switches when installed in accordance with this report and the provisions of Section C19-50.b.10 Administrative Code on condition:

1. That the Levelometers will not be installed in rooms or areas where there may be explosive atmospheres.

2. That they be used only with tanks equipped with open type vents.

3. That if the density of the liquid to be stored is to be appreciably changed from that of the previously stored liquid the gauge must be readjusted and further, that each installation including the electrical wiring circuits of the alarm system consisting of contact switches, visual alarms and audible alarms shall be acceptable to the Fire Department and such operating tests and periodic retests of each installation shall be made as that department may require, and that the Levelometer containing the contact switches shall bear a label, permanently affixed, reading, "Approved by the Board of Standards and Appeals for use in New York City under Calendar Number 271-62-SA."

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads: 300-62-SA—Speed Queen, A Division of McGraw-Edison Co., Ripon, Wisconsin, filed for approval of the appliance known as Speed Queen Dry Cleaner, Models 275 and 276 under the provisions of the Board's Rules for Coin-Operated Dry Cleaning Establishments.

USE: A coin operated dry cleaning machine using perchloroethylene as the solvent.

DESCRIPTION: The machines are so designed that there are two washing wheels on a common base, the base acting as the storage tank for the solvent and each unit of two wheels, with all accessory equipment is self contained and independent of the next battery.

The washer basket is 25 3/8 inches in diameter by 13 inches in depth.

The Model 275 has a filter incorporating a muck cooker, whereas the Model 276 has a filter without the muck cooker feature as some operators prefer to have the muck cooked for recovery of the solvent by an outside source.

There are no water connections made to the dry cleaner proper, however, water connections are required for the muck cooker. The water connection to the cooker consists of one connection to a cooling coil and a second to an unfired steam boiler which provides steam to steam sweep the muck during the recovery process.

The appliance has the following safety features:

Loading Door Safety: A door switch which prevents the unit from starting unless the clothes loading door is closed.

The clothes loading door is in the locked position at all times when the door is closed.

To open the clothes loading door requires energizing a solenoid to release the door lock.

Power to the door lock solenoid is broken at all times when the dry cleaner is in operation, therefore the door cannot be opened during the cycle.

The door cannot be opened in the event of power failure due to lack of power to operate the door lock solenoid.

Safety Thermostat: If safety (High Heat Limit) thermostat cycles, it energizes the "Manual Reset Switch" control solenoid which when energized moves the switch to the off position to break the power supply circuit. When the "Manual Reset Switch" is in the "off" position it closes a circuit to light an "out of order" light. When the "Manual Reset Switch" is in the "off" position, the clothes loading door cannot be opened because of lack of power to operate the door lock solenoid.

Belt Safety Switch: The belt safety switch is controlled by the cylinder drive belt. If the cylinder drive belt should break or stop for any reason, the belt safety switch closes a circuit to the solenoid controlling the "Manual Reset Switch" which in turn keeps the door in the locked position.

INSPECTION AND TEST: Details of construction were examined by Assistant Engineer John A. Darts, and it was noted that the basket had a cubic capacity of 3.8 cu. ft. and a maximum dry load capacity of 10.65 lbs.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends the approval of the appliance known as Speed Queen Dry Cleaner Models 275 and 276 for use in New York City where permitted in the Zoning Resolution and when installed in accordance with the Board's Rules for Coin-Operated Dry Cleaning Establishments, provided that each machine bears a label, permanently affixed, reading, "Approved by the Board of Standards and Appeals for use in New York City under Calendar Number 300-62-SA".

The Committee further recommends that on each machine there be displayed its maximum dry load capacity of 10.65 pounds for each basket and that all electrical installation work conform to the Electrical Code of the City of New York and that exhaust air flow through the loading door opening shall be at least 100 cu. ft. per minute.

The Committee further recommends that the appliance may also be marketed under the additional trade name of Econo Quick.

RULES

5.0 TESTS.

Tests for each specific installation of originally treated combustible material, or any re-tests thereof, shall be made by the Fire Commissioner, or in a laboratory approved by him, in accordance with the requirements of these Rules.

5.1 SAMPLING FOR TEST SPECIMENS —

Samples of each variety of material and for every kind of treatment shall be subjected to separate test. Samples shall be of sufficient size to furnish test specimens provided for in Rule 5.2. At least three samples shall be furnished for every 500 square feet or fraction thereof.

5.2 TEST SPECIMENS—Specimens for test shall be 2 in. wide and 12½ in. long and shall be numbered on one end. Test specimens shall be carefully cut from at least three different places in the material to provide a minimum of three test specimens from each material for testing.

5.3 CONDITIONING OF TEST SPECIMENS—

The test samples or test specimens shall be dried for 24 hours in a room of average temperature of 70° F., with an average humidity of 40%.

5.4 TEST FOR PERMANENCE OF CHEMICALS—Test specimens shall be suspended by folding and pinning one-half inch of the numbered end over a horizontal 8-gauge wire, placed two inches above the center of a 7-inch opening in a 3-ft. wind tunnel arranged to deliver a wind velocity to the air, at the tunnel end, of 700 lineal feet, plus or minus 50 ft. per minute, as measured by a suitable anemometer on a line with the wire. In this position the test specimens shall be whipped for five minutes. Immediately upon conclusion of this test, the specimens shall be placed in a closed dry container until required for the flame test.

5.5 APPARATUS FOR FLAME TEST—The apparatus shall consist of a ring stand 20 inches high with an adjustable clamp housed in a metal shield 12 inches square and 20 inches high, opened in front and at both ends and a Bunsen or Tirrill gas burner which shall have a tube of ⅜-inch inside diameter.

5.6 FLAME TEST—A whipped test specimen shall be taken from the closed container required in Rule 5.4 and suspended vertically with one-half inch of the numbered end in a clip held in a clamp on a ring stand so that the test specimen shall hang vertically within and near the center of the metal shield required in Rule 5.5. The lower end of the test specimen shall be three-quarters of an inch above the top of the gas burner on which the air supply is shut off completely and adjusted to give a luminous flame 1½ inches long. The flame shall be applied for 12 seconds, then withdrawn. The result of the test for duration of flame and duration of glow of the three test specimens shall each be averaged and recorded. Flashing, if any, shall be noted.

6.0 APPROVAL AND CERTIFICATION.

The approval of materials that have been flameproofed, as provided in Rule 1.0 and tested as required in Rule 5.0 with flameproofing properties as given in Rule 4.0 shall be limited to one year. An affidavit by the person, firm or corporation flameproofing the combustible materials shall be filed with the Fire Commissioner stating that the flameproofing compound and method complies with the approval of the Board, with calendar number thereof, and including the date of treatment and warranted period of effectiveness of the flameproofing.

6.1 The Fire Commissioner may require check tests at any time. Upon the termination of the approval, as provided for in Rule 6.0, a retest of the flameproofed combustible materials shall withstand to the following:

Flameproofed materials shall withstand a test of at least 400° F., as measured by a pyrometer, or other acceptable method, for approximately one-minute's duration by means of an open flame. Under such test, the flameproofed material shall not flash or support combustion and shall not glow outside of the char if a char is set up by the open flame. Material found not to conform to these requirements, shall be removed and replaced with materials conforming to the requirements of Rule 4.0.

7.0 EXEMPTION.

These Rules shall not be construed to apply to merchandise for sale or displayed for sale, to guest rooms in hotels, to offices, to works of art in museums, nor to churches or places of religious worship.

Number 583-57-SA be reopened and amended so as to permit a change in equipment on the Airco Liquid Oxygen, Nitrogen or Argon Station, Models 5-4, 7-8, 7-25, 9-8, 9-25, 9-40 and 9-100.

DESCRIPTION: The Airco Station Models 5-4, 7-8, 7-25, 9-8, 9-25, 9-40 and 9-100 as previously approved used steam or hot water vaporizers sized for the station as shown by the suffix numeral in the model designation. Model 5-4 has a storage capacity of 490 gallons of liquid and could produce gas at a flow of 4000 cubic feet per hour. Models 7-8 and 7-25 each with a liquid capacity of 1343 gallons could generate gas at 8000 and 25,000 cubic feet per hour respectively. The Models 9-8, 9-25, 9-40 and 9-100 each had a liquid capacity of 2855 gallons and could generate gas at rates of 8,000, 25,000, 40,000, and 100,000 cubic feet per hour respectively.

The request has been made to permit the use of ambient air type vaporizers in place of steam or hot water vaporizers, in which case the air type vaporizers will be installed outside the control cabinet and may be provided with a fan for air circulation around the vaporizer coil, and also to permit the use of the small size vaporizer with the larger size stations when the gas demand requirements of the consumer would not warrant the use of the larger capacity vaporizers.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends that the resolution adopted March 18, 1958, and amended November 18, 1958, under Calendar Number 583-57-SA be reopened and amended so as to permit the use of ambient air type vaporizers and also to permit the use of the small size vaporizer with the larger size stations in accordance with this report on condition that the requirements of the resolution adopted March 18, 1958, and amended November 18, 1958, under Calendar Number 583-57-SA except as it refers to the obsolete Model 5-4 Airco Station, shall be complied with.

The application was subject for dismissal but was taken off the dismissal list at the request of the applicant.

USE: A two hour fire resistive roof and ceiling construction.

DESCRIPTION: The construction consists of roof and ceiling assembly consisting of steel roof units covered with mineral fiberboard and a 3-ply rag felt and asphalt built up roof covering supported by open web joists protected by a lath and vermiculite plaster ceiling.

The materials used in the construction were as follows: Open web steel joists, steel roof deck 20 gauge steel 1½" deep, mineral fiberboard 1" thick with edges cut to provide ½" shiplap, adhesive, asphalt-saturated, perforated rag felt and hot mopping asphalt, furring channels, tie wire, 3.4 lb./sq. yd. metal lath, gypsum and vermiculite aggregate.

The construction is as follows: Steel joists are first installed and then the steel roof deck is placed on top of and at right angles to the joists and is tack welded to the joists on 12" centers. Adhesive is then applied to the steel roof deck in ribbons ½" wide at a rate of 0.4 gal./100 sq. ft. The mineral fiberboard is then placed and pressed onto the adhesive. The built-up is then applied for a three layer application.

Runner channels, spaced 32" on centers are wire tied to the bottom chords of the joists with No. 11 steel wire. Furring channels, spaced 12" on centers are then attached to the runner channels with No. 18 gauge wire. Metal lath is then tied to the channels with 18 gauge wire. Vermiculite plaster, exclusive of the finish coat, is then applied to the lath to a thickness of ⅞".

INSPECTION AND TEST: A construction as herein described was tested at the Underwriters Laboratories in accordance with the requirements of C26-588.0 through C26-590.0 Administrative Building Code. During the course of the test, the assembly was subjected to a total live and dead load of 71 lbs./sq. ft. The construction successfully met the requirements of a two hour fire resistive roof and ceiling construction. The complete report is on file with and is part of the record.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends the approval of the roof and ceiling construction as herein described and in accordance with Drawing R3996-3

The numeral in the model designation indicates in thousands the BTU input rating.

All heaters are designed to be vented and are AGA approved.

The LOW Models are changed from the previously approved LOT Models only in that a two tone enamel combination is used on the outside casing and a stainless steel trim is used.

The MOT Models are changed from the LOT Models by means of a mesh front design in place of a louvered front, a front service door in place of a side service door and new type legs.

The 35 and 50 LTW Models differ from the 65 LTW Models only in that they are smaller in size and capacity.

The MTW Models are changed from the LTW Models by use of a mesh front in place of a louvered front, a front service door in place of side service door and also new type legs.

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads: 400-61-SA—Amendment to resolution as to additional dry cleaning machine.

Whirlpool Corp., Benton Harbor, Michigan, requested that the resolution adopted March 13, 1962, under Calendar Number 400-61-SA be reopened and amended so as to include an additional model of coin operated dry cleaner. USE: Coin operated dry cleaner using Perchloroethylene as the solvent.

DESCRIPTION: The requested Model CKC 50 is basically the same as the presently approved machine, the difference being as follows: The number of heating elements has been decreased from 3 to 2 but the wattage has been increased from 2625 watts to 5000 watts, the refrigeration system has been increased from $\frac{2}{3}$ to 1 H.P. compressor, an adjustable coin counting device, a manual starting switch located on the rear control panel is added so that the machine may be started in emergency cases without the use of coins. The manual switch will not operate the machine unless the loading door is closed. A $\frac{1}{2}$ sump type pump replaces the centrifugal type pump, the fan motor and belt driven fan are replaced by a $\frac{1}{2}$ H.P. direct drive motor and fan assembly, the solvent condenser system now utilizes cooled solvent for condensing instead of refrigerated coils and a carbon cartridge utilizing carbon crystals replaces a carbon dispensing hopper for solvent clarification.

For Applicant: Albert H. Morgan.

ACTION OF BOARD—Material approved in accordance with the report and recommendation of Committee on Test.

THE VOTE—

Affirmative: Chairman Foley, Vice Chairman Kleinert, Commissioner Fox, Commissioner Becker and Commissioner Klein 5

Negative: 0

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads:

1109-61-SM—Albert H. Morgan for White Personnel-Material Hoist Company, Inc., 7 West Sheffield Avenue, Englewood, New Jersey, filed for approval of the Material known as White Personnel-Material Hoist Model No. 55.

USE: Hoist to raise workmen and/or material during construction of a building.

DESCRIPTION: This hoist consists of a machine with dual drums each grooved for a single hoist cable located adjacent to the base of a four pole steel tower in which the car travels on steel "T" rails and is suspended by two, $\frac{3}{4}$ " cables from overhead sheaves. The drums are directly connected to a reversible motor through spur and helical gearing.

CAPACITY: Live load 5000 lbs. (max.)

PLATFORM SIZE: 7'-0" wide by 7'- $\frac{1}{4}$ " front to back. (Max.)

CONTRACT SPEED: 300 feet per minute which is not to be exceeded.

CONTROL: The hoist shall receive its power from an alternating current electric motor of sufficient horsepower rating to raise the total weight of the car plus the rated live load at a speed of 300 FPM. The hoist motor shall receive its electric power through a variable speed controller which includes automatic slowdown and stopping. The operating engineer shall control the starting, stopping, speed and direction of travel of the hoist.

OPERATION: A position indicator shall be provided to show the operating engineer the exact position of the car in the hoistway at all times. This indicator shall be of sufficient accuracy to enable the engineer to bring the car platform to any and all landings. The attendant, stationed in the hoist car, shall have a signalling device or telephone to signal the engineer at which landings stops are to be made.

SAFETY DEVICE: 1. Electrical: A dead-man switch shall be provided in the hoist car which must be held closed by the attendant to permit operation of the hoist by the engineer. An emergency stop switch shall also be provided convenient to the attendant. Limit switches shall be provided in the hoistway to stop the car automatically when it reaches either terminal landing and also to open the operating circuit if the car should travel past either terminal landing. A switch located on top of the car shall be provided to open the operating circuit in case either hoist rope becomes slack or the governor is tripped by overspeed. A contact shall be provided to hold the operating circuit open while the car gate is open. All electrical safety switches and contacts must maintain continuity of a closed electric circuit to enable the car to be operated. A governor, mechanically driven from one of the drum shafts, shall be provided as a part of the control equipment. This governor shall be arranged to operate a safety switch that will operate through the controller to shut off the power supply and apply the electric brake on the drive motor in the event the car speed should reach a point 20% above rated speed. The drum governor shall also act to automatically apply the electro-mechanical brake on the winding drums if the car fails to stop after the operation of the safety switch.

Slow down switches shall be provided in the tower and will be operated by a cam on the hoist car. As the car approaches either terminal landing, if the engineer has not already reduced the speed, the slow-down switches shall act automatically to reduce the car speed to one-third rated speed.

2. Mechanical: A safety device (F. S. Payne Co. or equal) that will apply instantly in the event of a broken hoist rope and stop the car gradually by gripping the guide rails with a substantially uniform pressure shall be provided in the lower member of the car frame. This safety shall also be actuated by a speed governor as described in Item 5 of further conditions. An electro-mechanical brake shall be provided as a part of the hoisting machine, acting upon the motor shaft that will have sufficient power to stop the fully loaded car while travelling downward at governor tripping speed. The brake shall be spring actuated and released by an electro magnet. In event of failure of electric power the brake shall be applied and prevent the drums from turning. A second electro-mechanical brake also spring operated when power is cut off shall be provided to act upon the winding drums and to be operated by final limit switches or through a button located conveniently near the engineer's position. This brake shall be completely independent of the magnetic brake used for normal stopping of the hoist but shall operate each time the machine stops. The final limit switches shall also cut off the main power supply through an electro-mechanical switch.

CAR FRAME: The car frame shall consist of a safety plank, upright stiles and a crosshead all built of steel channels calculated to carry safely all the normal and impact loads imposed upon them. Steel diagonal bracing shall be provided to support the four corners of the platform.

PLATFORM: The car platform shall consist of a channel steel or aluminum frame, steel or aluminum stringers and a steel or aluminum plate floor assembled as a unit and secured to the safety plank.

ENCLOSURE: The car shall be enclosed on two sides and rear with sheets of aluminum or steel 8'-6" high. The top shall be entirely covered with wood in accordance with the code. A gate 6'-0" high shall be provided to protect the entrance to the car. A one bulb light fixture shall be provided in the car top. An emergency hatchway shall be provided in the car roof, hinged, or otherwise attached, thereto. No part of the load shall project outside of the car enclosure.

HOISTING ROPES: The hoist shall be provided with two, $\frac{3}{4}$ " steel wire hoisting ropes. Each rope shall carry within its fiber center insulated, stranded copper conductors through which the electrical safety, telephone and light circuits of the hoist shall be maintained.

GUIDE RAILS: The hoist shall be provided with standard elevator type planed steel "T" guide rails, each rail weighing 15 lbs. per foot. Guide rails shall be bracketed to the steel tower at intervals of approximately 6'-6". Each guide rail bracket shall be substantially braced structurally to prevent spreading of the guide rails.

COMPONENTS: All electrical and mechanical components such as limit switches, slack rope switch, gate contact, etc., shall be approved types.

HOISTWAY TOWER: The hoist shall be installed within an open tower constructed by Chesebro-Whitman of steel tubes for vertical and horizontal members and with ample diagonal bracing. The members of the tower shall be calculated to support any and all possible loads due to the hoist, including impact loads due to stopping the car with full live load by action of the car safety device. The tower shall also be braced at suitable intervals to the building structure to hold the tower in a plumb vertical position and also to withstand wind pressure. The hoist shall not be used for personnel when the wind velocity at the site exceeds forty miles per hour.

The complete tower shall be specifically designed for passenger hoist operation with full live loads, impacts and eccentricities. All design loads are to be in accordance with National Elevator Code A-17, of 1960. Cathead supports are to be calculated for loads, impacts and eccentricities. Landing doors are to be provided with mechanical lock of rim latch type non-operable from landing side, except by emergency key in possession of operating engineer or construction superintendent.

FOUNDATION: The hoist tower shall be supported by and fastened to a substantial foundation. The foundation shall be calculated to support all weights and impact loads, and will have suitable supports to prevent settling.

INSPECTION AND TEST: The installation of this Personnel-Material Hoist at the Consolidated Edison Co.'s Ravenswood Power House was inspected by Chairman Foley, Vice Chairman Kleinert and Commissioner Klein of the Board, and by Messrs. W. A. Rising, Chief Inspector, and H. C. Dunn, Ass't. Chief Inspector of the Elevator Division of the Department of Buildings.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends the approval of the material known as White Personnel-Material Hoist, Model Number 55, for use in a Chesebro-Whitman personnel-material hoist tower for use in New York City on condition that it conform to the description in this Resolution and to the following drawings and literature filed with this application:

204-62-SM—Carnes Corporation, Verona, Wisconsin, filed for approval of the material known as Carnes Fusible Link Damper, Models 700 and 725 under the provisions of C26-191.0 Administrative Building Code.

USE: Fusible link damper to be installed behind air supply and return grilles.

DESCRIPTION: The Model 700 is an opposed blade damper and the Model 725 is a multi-shutter rather than opposed.

The damper frames are of 20 gauge steel and the blades are 22 gauge steel.

Operation of the damper is accomplished with a zinc die cast actuator. This actuator moves a slide bar which in turn opens and closes the damper blades.

The fusible link assembly consists of a tab welded to the damper slide bar, a pivot arm, a heavy bracket to hold the pivot arm, a spring and a fusible link rated at 160°F.

During normal operation, the fusible link holds the pivot arm in a position that does not curtail damper operation. At a temperature of 160°F, the fusible link will fail, releasing the pivot arm. Spring tension will pull the pivot arm to strike the tab located on the slide bar, thus moving the slide bar and closing the damper bar.

INSPECTION AND TEST: Details of construction were examined by Assistant Engineer John A. Darts, and it was noted that a 160°F fusible link is used with the damper.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends the approval of the material known as Carnes Fusible Link Damper, Models 700 and 725 for voluntary use in New York City under the provisions of C26-191.0 Administrative Building Code on condition that the fusible link used in conjunction with the damper shall be a 160°F rated fusible link and that the damper bear a label, permanently affixed, reading, "Approved by the Board of Standards and Appeals for use in New York City under Calendar Number 204-62-SM."

RULES

Fire Drill Rules, Adopted by the Board of Standards and Appeals, October 5, 1923

(593-23-SR)

FIRE BRIGADE

DEFINITION OF "FIRE DRILL"

The method and practice of the systematic and orderly vacating of a building by its occupants in case of emergency, panic or fire in the least possible time—by the nearest safe means of exit—and the use of fire appliances which shall be provided for the extinguishing or retarding of fire and the safeguarding of human life.

Rule 1.

In all buildings as defined in Article 1, Section 10 of the Labor Law in which fire drills are required pursuant to Section 279 thereof and in any other building in which such drills are required by the Fire Commissioner pursuant to the power conferred in section 491 of the New York City Charter, it shall be the duty of the owners, lessees or tenants to conduct fire drills monthly and at such other times as the Fire Commissioner may direct.

For the purpose of conducting such fire drills the owner or tenants shall appoint from among their employees such responsible and dependable persons, male or female, who shall efficiently perform the duties of the various positions of the fire drill organization, as specified on the accompanying chart.

It shall be the duty of the owner or tenant to enter in the blank spaces provided for that purpose in said chart the names of persons so selected and post said chart and copies of the rules in a conspicuous place.

Rule 2. Duties of Foreman.

The Foreman or Person in Charge shall direct, enforce and have full charge of the "Fire Drill" in every factory on each floor. Each day before work is begun he shall see that extinguishers, fire hose, fire buckets, etc., are in readiness for use, exit doors are unlocked, aisles are free from obstruction, that stairways, halls, etc., are properly lighted, and shall remedy any dangerous condition found to exist. Immediately after work is commenced he shall check up the Fire Drill Organization list and note if the regularly assigned persons are present; if any are found to be absent, he shall assign other employees (if practicable) to perform their duties.

He shall immediately notify new employees of the existence of the Fire Drill Organization and give them the necessary instructions as to the duties they are to perform, etc.

He shall be familiar with the operation and location of the interior alarm signal box on his floor.

He shall listen for the test signal each morning at the appointed hour and in the event of the test signal not being heard he shall communicate with the superintendent or other person in charge of the building and advise him of the fact. The (Floor Captain's) Foreman's orders are final as to the carrying out of the fire drill on his particular floor.

Rule 3. Duties of Watchmen.

The WATCHMEN shall see that all doors and windows are closed so as to prevent the spread of fire. The WATCHMEN shall be the only persons permitted to remain on the floor during the progress of a fire drill and do so at their own risk. For ordinary purposes only one watchman and a substitute shall be designated. In special cases, however, extra watchmen may be assigned by consent in writing from Fire Commissioner.

RULES

Rule 4. Duties of Searchers.

The MALE AND FEMALE SEARCHERS shall search all toilets, dressing rooms and emergency rooms used and frequented by their sex and all other portions of the floor and order all persons, except those authorized to remain, to leave the premises. They are to take care of and assist all persons who may faint or be disabled.

SEARCHERS shall leave the floor immediately after the last squad leaves.

Rule 5. Duties of Street Alarm Box Runner.

The STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall be familiar with the location of the nearest city fire alarm box and know how it is operated.

In ordinary practice fire drills the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall report to the Foreman for orders, and if his services are not required he shall promptly file out of the premises with the other occupants.

Only when a fire actually occurs on his floor, or when ordered to do so by the Foreman, shall the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER proceed to the street alarm box and send in the fire alarm.

Rule 6. Duties of Fire Brigade.

The fire brigade shall have full charge of the operation of all auxiliary fire fighting apparatus and shall endeavor to extinguish, or at least hold in check until the arrival of the Fire Department, any fire that may occur. When it is necessary for the fire brigade to respond to different floors in the building they shall not use the stairways or fire escapes while the occupants are escaping from the premises.

Rule 7. Duties of Exit Guards.

The EXIT GUARDS shall station themselves at all exit doors leading to fire escapes, stairways, and other means of escape immediately upon the sounding of the alarm. There shall be two guards for each exit, if practicable; one to stand in the hallway holding back the door and the other directly inside on the floor. They are to keep the exit doors open and direct the movements of the persons using these exits and prevent congestion.

EXIT GUARDS shall remain at their stations until all of the occupants of the building have passed their station. Then close their doors and pass out of the building. Upon signal for the occupants to return, EXIT GUARDS shall take their designated stations and remain there until all persons have returned to their respective floors.

Rule 8. Duties of Squad Monitors.

The SQUAD MONITORS, as soon as the alarm is sounded, shall see that the employees under their charge quickly form into line, two abreast, and numbering not more than thirty to each squad. They shall see that all aisles and passageways are cleared of obstructions.

Note: Chairs, stools, baskets, etc., should be pushed under or placed on top of work benches.

MONITORS shall proceed at the head of their respective squads to the exit assigned, and then march up or down the stairs or to other exits as directed by the EXIT GUARDS.

On reaching the sidewalk MONITORS shall keep their squads in order and lead them a reasonable distance from the building, so as not to cause congestion and interference with fire apparatus. When the proper signal is given they shall return to their respective floors at head of their squads.

MONITORS will at all times see that those under their charge conduct themselves in a respectable and orderly manner.

Rule 9. Holding of Drills.

FIRE DRILLS shall be held at least once each month at varied hours of the day, and all of the occupants shall participate therein simultaneously. Such drills shall conduct all occupants to a place of safety.

Where dual operation interior fire alarm systems are installed as permitted under Rule 10.1 of the interior fire alarm rules of the Board of Standards and Appeals, the fire drill conducted each month shall include all of the persons on the premises engaged at work for a factory, and drills shall be conducted at least twice, each year in which all of the persons on the premises shall participate simultaneously.

Rule 10. Duties of Owner.

It shall be the duty of the OWNER, LESSEE OR TENANT OF THE BUILDING or his authorized agent or their representatives to personally observe that the "Fire Drill" is held simultaneously on every floor of the building and the participation therein of every occupant of such building. Any FIRE DRILL in which all of the occupants do not participate shall not be considered as complying with the LAW, except as otherwise provided in these rules.

The person or persons representing the OWNERS, LESSEE OR TENANT, who supervises the FIRE DRILL at the building shall submit to an examination by the Division of Fire Prevention as to their experience and general fitness for such duties, and shall be so certified in writing by the FIRE COMMISSIONER.

It shall be the duty of the ENGINEER, SUPERINTENDENT or other PERSON IN CHARGE, of a building having an interior fire alarm system to test such system daily, immediately after the beginning of business, and to see that all apparatus operated by springs, requiring winding are rewound after each alarm and kept in normal condition for operation.

Rule 11. Duties of Engineer.

Whenever it is necessary to test the fire alarm system at any other time of the day, owing to repairs, etc., being made, the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING will first notify all Foremen of the several floors of the intended test and likewise notify them when the repairs, etc. are completed. This precaution is taken to prevent confusion and excitement, also misunderstanding of the alarm signals.

It shall also be the duty of the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING to sound the interior alarm system at irregular intervals, but not less than once each calendar month, for the purpose of holding practice fire drills. He shall keep on the premises a record of such drills, showing the date when held and the required time for all occupants to reach the street or a point of safety outside the building.

The PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING must immediately acquaint new tenants of the existence of the "Fire Drill" Organization and its purport.

Rule 12. Registration.

The name and address of every person, corporation or co-partnership, that will, under professional service, carry on the trade, business or calling of establishing, maintaining or supervising the "Fire Drill" shall be registered in the Fire Department, which Department shall, upon evidence of fitness, grant a certificate to that effect.

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads:

1765-61-SA—Tappan Company, Mansfield, Ohio, filed for approval of the Tappan Dishwasher, Models UCA-2-8 and UCA-4-8, under the provisions of the Submerged Inlet Rules of the Board.

USE: Automatic dishwasher. (appliance).

DESCRIPTION: The interior of the machine is so designed that all parts coming in contact with the dishes are covered with a vinyl coating.

The washer has a cycle that heats the water to 140°F. The water is heated to this temperature, if necessary, by means of a 1200 watt element located in the bottom of the tub.

This same element also acts during the drying cycle to heat air which is circulated over and around the dishes so as to dry them. The moisture laden air is then driven to the cooler walls of the tub where it condenses and rolls down to the drain and out of the machine.

The drain line is located above the water level of the tub.

The water supply enters through a 1" air gap as shown on Drawings 750T061S01 (A), 072T088F (B), 750T061P (A), 308T00SF (A), which are on file with and are part of the record.

INSPECTION & TEST: Details of construction were examined by Ass't. Engineer John A. Darts. The appliance has been approved by the Underwriters' Laboratories.

The applicant has also submitted a letter, dated July 13, 1962, from Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, which recommends the approval of these dishwashers, provided that they comply with the requirements of any other city agency having jurisdiction.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends the approval of the Tappan Dishwasher, Models UCA-2-8 and UCA-4-8, for voluntary use in New York City, on condition that the garbage disposal unit shall not be used in conjunction with the dishwasher, that all electrical work comply with the requirements of the Electrical Code of New York City, that all installation comply with the requirements of the Submerged Inlet Rules of the Board. The dishwashers are to be installed in accordance with the requirements of Article 15 of the Administrative Building Code. In new buildings the waste from the dishwashers is to be separately trapped and vented. New buildings shall be considered to be buildings for which plans are filed after the passage of this resolution. In other buildings the dishwashers may be drained into an adjacent fixture which is vented and trapped. Each appliance shall bear a label permanently affixed, reading "Approved by the Board of Standards and Appeals for use in New York City under Calendar Number 1765-61-SA".

THE VOTE TO APPROVE—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads:
1821-61-SA—Preway Inc., Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin, filed for approval of the appliance known as Preway Gas Dishwasher, Models 2530 and P2530 under the provisions of the Submerged Inlet Rules of the Board and Article 12, Chapter 26, Administrative Building Code.

USE: Automatic dishwasher.

DESCRIPTION: The component parts can be classified into two systems: the gas ignition, combustion and exhaust system, and the water and drain system. These two systems are coordinated and connected with each other and their entire functioning is controlled by the Timer.

The timer starts the cycle by opening the water inlet valve which permits the water to enter the tub and to clear the water inlet line. It then stops the inlet valve and starts the drain pump which drains the tub, flushing it out. The timer then starts the wash cycle allowing the water to enter through a 1" air gap.

The timer stops and the low thermostat will call for heat if the water temperature is below 160°F. The thermostat is connected to the timer and the timer will activate the gas ignition, combustion and exhaust system. When the water heats to 160°F the gas combustion system shuts off.

These cycles repeat themselves during the course of the washing and rinsing cycles.

The main gas valve is a combination electric gas valve and pressure regulator and opens and closes according to the demands of the thermostat calling for heat.

The appliance is also equipped with a flame detector whose function it is to activate all other safety functions. Another safety is the lock out control which shuts off the gas in the event of any failure of the gas system.

INSPECTION AND TEST: Details of construction were examined by Assistant Engineer John A. Darts, and it was noted that the dishwasher is an automatically controlled appliance. The dishwasher has been approved by the American Gas Association and is rated at 16,000 BTU per hour input and is approved by the A. G. A. as an unvented unit.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test is of the opinion that although the appliance meets the requirements of the Submerged Inlet Rules of the Board and has been approved by the American Gas Association they cannot recommend approval. This opinion is based on the A. G. A. approval which states that the input rating is 16,000 BTU per hour and is listed as an unvented unit, and the wording of C26-696.0.1.b Administrative Building Code requires that the appliance be vented.

The Committee therefore recommends that the application be either withdrawn or denied.

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads:
968-62-SA—Air Products and Chemicals Inc., Iselin, New Jersey, filed for approval of the appliance known as Liquid Nitrogen Storage Tank and Converter, Model A 9000—CV N—245 under the provisions of Article 17, Chapter 19, Administrative Code.

USE: To store liquefied nitrogen and to supply the gas under pressure.

DESCRIPTION: The liquid nitrogen converter stores nitrogen in liquid form and converts it into a gas for the consumer's use.

The installation consists essentially of a vertical, cylindrical storage vessel and a vaporizer. The storage vessel is of 9000 gallons capacity and is made of 9% nickel alloy steel designed in accordance with the ASME code for unfired pressure vessels and is code stamped. The design pressure is 270 p.s.i. with full external vacuum and the hydrostatic test pressure is 405 p.s.i. The storage tank is jacketed with an outer carbon steel jacket constructed to comply with the ASME code for 15 p.s.i. external pressure but is not so stamped. The intervening space between inner and outer vessels is filled with powdered incombustible insulation and kept under vacuum.

The inner vessel is provided with a 1" x 1¼" Lonergan relief valve set at 245 p.s.i. and a Black Sivalls and Bryson rupture disc set at 279 p.s.i.g. minimum to 294 p.s.i.g. maximum. The outer vessel has a relief device at the top to relieve annular space pressure if it should exceed atmospheric pressure. The control piping is protected with Bastian-Blessing relief valves set at 300 p.s.i. All relief devices except the outer vessel relief are installed in the control piping cabinet.

The vaporizer is a steel tank which contains copper coils immersed in water which is heated by steam. The flow of steam is automatically controlled to maintain the desired water temperature and gas pressure.

INSPECTION AND TEST: All details submitted were examined by Assistant Engineer George F. Sklenarik.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends the approval of the appliance known as Air Products and Chemicals Liquid Nitrogen Storage Tank and Converter Model A 9000—CV N—245 for use in New York City under the provisions of Article 17, Chapter 19, Administrative Code on condition that every installation will be made outdoors where permitted by law, that the minimum clearance between converter and adjacent structures may be 5 feet if the walls are fire resistive in construction and with no openings within 25 feet of the converter unless such openings lead to rooms used exclusively for the storage of nitrogen and/or the charging of cylinders or suitable containers in which case the distance from converter to wall opening may be reduced to 10 feet, no storage of combustible material to be permitted in the nitrogen storage area, that all piping from the converter and within the building will be as required by the Fire Department, that each installation will be serviced and periodically inspected by specially trained personnel holding Certificates of Fitness issued by the Fire Department, that all electrical work will be in accordance with the Electrical Code of the City of New York and further that each converter installation will bear a label, permanently affixed, reading, "Approved by the Board of Standards and Appeals for use in New York City under Calendar Number 968-62-SA."

RULES

Fire Drill Rules, Adopted by the Board of Standards and Appeals, October 5, 1923

(593-23-SR)

DEFINITION OF "FIRE DRILL"

The method and practice of the systematic and orderly vacating of a building by its occupants in case of emergency, panic or fire in the least possible time—by the nearest safe means of exit—and the use of fire appliances which shall be provided for the extinguishing or retarding of fire and the safeguarding of human life.

Rule 1.

In all buildings as defined in Article 1, Section 10 of the Labor Law in which fire drills are required pursuant to Section 279 thereof and in any other building in which such drills are required by the Fire Commissioner pursuant to the power conferred in section 491 of the New York City Charter, it shall be the duty of the owners, lessees or tenants to conduct fire drills monthly and at such other times as the Fire Commissioner may direct.

For the purpose of conducting such fire drills the owner or tenants shall appoint from among their employees such responsible and dependable persons, male or female, who shall efficiently perform the duties of the various positions of the fire drill organization, as specified on the accompanying chart.

It shall be the duty of the owner or tenant to enter in the blank spaces provided for that purpose in said chart the names of persons so selected and post said chart and copies of the rules in a conspicuous place.

Rule 2. Duties of Foreman.

The Foreman or Person in Charge shall direct, enforce and have full charge of the "Fire Drill" in every factory on each floor. Each day before work is begun he shall see that extinguishers, fire hose, fire buckets, etc., are in readiness for use, exit doors are unlocked, aisles are free from obstruction, that stairways, halls, etc., are properly lighted, and shall remedy any dangerous condition found to exist. Immediately after work is commenced he shall check up the Fire Drill Organization list and note if the regularly assigned persons are present; if any are found to be absent, he shall assign other employees (if practicable) to perform their duties.

He shall immediately notify new employees of the existence of the Fire Drill Organization and give them the necessary instructions as to the duties they are to perform, etc.

He shall be familiar with the operation and location of the interior alarm signal box on his floor.

He shall listen for the test signal each morning at the appointed hour and in the event of the test signal not being heard he shall communicate with the superintendent or other person in charge of the building and advise him of the fact. The (Floor Captain's) Foreman's orders are final as to the carrying out of the fire drill on his particular floor.

Rule 3. Duties of Watchmen.

The WATCHMEN shall see that all doors and windows are closed so as to prevent the spread of fire. The WATCHMEN shall be the only persons permitted to remain on the floor during the progress of a fire drill and do so at their own risk. For ordinary purposes only one watchman and a substitute shall be designated. In special cases, however, extra watchmen may be assigned by consent in writing from Fire Commissioner.

Rule 4. Duties of Searchers.

The MALE AND FEMALE SEARCHERS shall search all toilets, dressing rooms and emergency rooms used and frequented by their sex and all other portions of the floor and order all persons, except those authorized to remain, to leave the premises. They are to take care of and assist all persons who may faint or be disabled.

SEARCHERS shall leave the floor immediately after the last squad leaves.

Rule 5. Duties of Street Alarm Box Runner.

The STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall be familiar with the location of the nearest city fire alarm box and know how it is operated.

In ordinary practice fire drills the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall report to the Foreman for orders, and if his services are not required he shall promptly file out of the premises with the other occupants.

Only when a fire actually occurs on his floor, or when ordered to do so by the Foreman, shall the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER proceed to the street alarm box and send in the fire alarm.

Rule 6. Duties of Fire Brigade.

The fire brigade shall have full charge of the operation of all auxiliary fire fighting apparatus and shall endeavor to extinguish, or at least hold in check until the arrival of the Fire Department, any fire that may occur. When it is necessary for the fire brigade to respond to different floors in the building they shall not use the stairways or fire escapes while the occupants are escaping from the premises.

RULES

Rule 7. Duties of Exit Guards.

The EXIT GUARDS shall station themselves at all exit doors leading to fire escapes, stairways, and other means of escape immediately upon the sounding of the alarm. There shall be two guards for each exit, if practicable; one to stand in the hallway holding back the door and the other directly inside on the floor. They are to keep the exit doors open and direct the movements of the persons using these exits and prevent congestion.

EXIT GUARDS shall remain at their stations until all of the occupants of the building have passed their station. Then close their doors and pass out of the building. Upon signal for the occupants to return, EXIT GUARDS shall take their designated stations and remain there until all persons have returned to their respective floors.

Rule 8. Duties of Squad Monitors.

The SQUAD MONITORS, as soon as the alarm is sounded, shall see that the employees under their charge quickly form into line, two abreast, and numbering not more than thirty to each squad. They shall see that all aisles and passageways are cleared of obstructions.

Note: Chairs, stools, baskets, etc., should be pushed under or placed on top of work benches.

MONITORS shall proceed at the head of their respective squads to the exit assigned, and then march up or down the stairs or to other exits as directed by the EXIT GUARDS.

On reaching the sidewalk MONITORS shall keep their squads in order and lead them a reasonable distance from the building, so as not to cause congestion and interference with fire apparatus. When the proper signal is given they shall return to their respective floors at head of their squads.

MONITORS will at all times see that those under their charge conduct themselves in a respectable and orderly manner.

Rule 9. Holding of Drills.

FIRE DRILLS shall be held at least once each month at varied hours of the day, and all of the occupants shall participate therein simultaneously. Such drills shall conduct all occupants to a place of safety.

Where dual operation interior fire alarm systems are installed as permitted under Rule 10.1 of the interior fire alarm rules of the Board of Standards and Appeals, the fire drill conducted each month shall include all of the persons on the premises engaged at work for a factory, and drills shall be conducted at least twice, each year in which all of the persons on the premises shall participate simultaneously.

Rule 10. Duties of Owner.

It shall be the duty of the OWNER, LESSEE OR TENANT OF THE BUILDING or his authorized agent or their representatives to personally observe that the "Fire Drill" is held simultaneously on every floor of the building and the participation therein of every occupant of such building. Any FIRE DRILL in which all of the occupants do not participate shall not be considered as complying with the LAW, except as otherwise provided in these rules.

The person or persons representing the OWNERS, LESSEE OR TENANT, who supervises the FIRE DRILL at the building shall submit to an examination by the Division of Fire Prevention as to their experience and general fitness for such duties, and shall be so certified in writing by the FIRE COMMISSIONER.

It shall be the duty of the ENGINEER, SUPERINTENDENT or other PERSON IN CHARGE, of a building having an interior fire alarm system to test such system daily, immediately after the beginning of business, and to see that all apparatus operated by springs, requiring winding are rewound after each alarm and kept in normal condition for operation.

Rule 11. Duties of Engineer.

Whenever it is necessary to test the fire alarm system at any other time of the day, owing to repairs, etc., being made, the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING will first notify all Foremen of the several floors of the intended test and likewise notify them when the repairs, etc. are completed. This precaution is taken to prevent confusion and excitement, also misunderstanding of the alarm signals.

It shall also be the duty of the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING to sound the interior alarm system at irregular intervals, but not less than once each calendar month, for the purpose of holding practice fire drills. He shall keep on the premises a record of such drills, showing the date when held and the required time for all occupants to reach the street or a point of safety outside the building.

The PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING must immediately acquaint new tenants of the existence of the "Fire Drill" Organization and its purport.

Rule 12. Registration.

The name and address of every person, corporation or co-partnership, that will, under professional service, carry on the trade, business or calling of establishing, maintaining or supervising the "Fire Drill" shall be registered in the Fire Department, which Department shall, upon evidence of fitness, grant a certificate to that effect.

RULES

Fire Drill Rules, Adopted by the Board of Standards and Appeals, October 5, 1923

(593-23-SR)

DEFINITION OF "FIRE DRILL"

The method and practice of the systematic and orderly vacating of a building by its occupants in case of emergency, panic or fire in the least possible time—by the nearest safe means of exit—and the use of fire appliances which shall be provided for the extinguishing or retarding of fire and the safeguarding of human life.

Rule 1.

In all buildings as defined in Article 1, Section 10 of the Labor Law in which fire drills are required pursuant to Section 279 thereof and in any other building in which such drills are required by the Fire Commissioner pursuant to the power conferred in section 491 of the New York City Charter, it shall be the duty of the owners, lessees or tenants to conduct fire drills monthly and at such other times as the Fire Commissioner may direct.

For the purpose of conducting such fire drills the owner or tenants shall appoint from among their employees such responsible and dependable persons, male or female, who shall efficiently perform the duties of the various positions of the fire drill organization, as specified on the accompanying chart.

It shall be the duty of the owner or tenant to enter in the blank spaces provided for that purpose in said chart the names of persons so selected and post said chart and copies of the rules in a conspicuous place.

RULES

Rule 2. Duties of Foreman.

The Foreman or Person in Charge shall direct, enforce and have full charge of the "Fire Drill" in every factory on each floor. Each day before work is begun he shall see that extinguishers, fire hose, fire buckets, etc., are in readiness for use, exit doors are unlocked, aisles are free from obstruction, that stairways, halls, etc., are properly lighted, and shall remedy any dangerous condition found to exist. Immediately after work is commenced he shall check up the Fire Drill Organization list and note if the regularly assigned persons are present; if any are found to be absent, he shall assign other employees (if practicable) to perform their duties.

He shall immediately notify new employees of the existence of the Fire Drill Organization and give them the necessary instructions as to the duties they are to perform, etc.

He shall be familiar with the operation and location of the interior alarm signal box on his floor.

He shall listen for the test signal each morning at the appointed hour and in the event of the test signal not being heard he shall communicate with the superintendent or other person in charge of the building and advise him of the fact. The (Floor Captain's) Foreman's orders are final as to the carrying out of the fire drill on his particular floor.

Rule 3. Duties of Watchmen.

The WATCHMEN shall see that all doors and windows are closed so as to prevent the spread of fire. The WATCHMEN shall be the only persons permitted to remain on the floor during the progress of a fire drill and do so at their own risk. For ordinary purposes only one watchman and a substitute shall be designated. In special cases, however, extra watchmen may be assigned by consent in writing from Fire Commissioner.

Rule 4. Duties of Searchers.

The MALE AND FEMALE SEARCHERS shall search all toilets, dressing rooms and emergency rooms used and frequented by their sex and all other portions of the floor and order all persons, except those authorized to remain, to leave the premises. They are to take care of and assist all persons who may faint or be disabled.

SEARCHERS shall leave the floor immediately after the last squad leaves.

Rule 5. Duties of Street Alarm Box Runner.

The STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall be familiar with the location of the nearest city fire alarm box and know how it is operated.

In ordinary practice fire drills the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall report to the Foreman for orders, and if his services are not required he shall promptly file out of the premises with the other occupants.

Only when a fire actually occurs on his floor, or when ordered to do so by the Foreman, shall the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER proceed to the street alarm box and send in the fire alarm.

Rule 6. Duties of Fire Brigade.

The fire brigade shall have full charge of the operation of all auxiliary fire fighting apparatus and shall endeavor to extinguish, or at least hold in check until the arrival of the Fire Department, any fire that may occur. When it is necessary for the fire brigade to respond to different floors in the building they shall not use the stairways or fire escapes while the occupants are escaping from the premises.

Rule 7. Duties of Exit Guards.

The EXIT GUARDS shall station themselves at all exit doors leading to fire escapes, stairways, and other means of escape immediately upon the sounding of the alarm. There shall be two guards for each exit, if practicable; one to stand in the hallway holding back the door and the other directly inside on the floor. They are to keep the exit doors open and direct the movements of the persons using these exits and prevent congestion.

EXIT GUARDS shall remain at their stations until all of the occupants of the building have passed their station. Then close their doors and pass out of the building. Upon signal for the occupants to return, EXIT GUARDS shall take their designated stations and remain there until all persons have returned to their respective floors.

Rule 8. Duties of Squad Monitors.

The SQUAD MONITORS, as soon as the alarm is sounded, shall see that the employees under their charge quickly form into line, two abreast, and numbering not more than thirty to each squad. They shall see that all aisles and passageways are cleared of obstructions.

Note: Chairs, stools, baskets, etc., should be pushed under or placed on top of work benches.

MONITORS shall proceed at the head of their respective squads to the exit assigned, and then march up or down the stairs or to other exits as directed by the EXIT GUARDS.

On reaching the sidewalk MONITORS shall keep their squads in order and lead them a reasonable distance from the building, so as not to cause congestion and interference with fire apparatus. When the proper signal is given they shall return to their respective floors at head of their squads.

RULES

MONITORS will at all times see that those under their charge conduct themselves in a respectable and orderly manner.

Rule 9. Holding of Drills.

FIRE DRILLS shall be held at least once each month at varied hours of the day, and all of the occupants shall participate therein simultaneously. Such drills shall conduct all occupants to a place of safety.

Where dual operation interior fire alarm systems are installed as permitted under Rule 10.1 of the interior fire alarm rules of the Board of Standards and Appeals, the fire drill conducted each month shall include all of the persons on the premises engaged at work for a factory, and drills shall be conducted at least twice, each year in which all of the persons on the premises shall participate simultaneously.

Rule 10. Duties of Owner.

It shall be the duty of the OWNER, LESSEE OR TENANT OF THE BUILDING or his authorized agent or their representatives to personally observe that the "Fire Drill" is held simultaneously on every floor of the building and the participation therein of every occupant of such building. Any FIRE DRILL in which all of the occupants do not participate shall not be considered as complying with the LAW, except as otherwise provided in these rules.

The person or persons representing the OWNERS, LESSEE OR TENANT, who supervises the FIRE DRILL at the building shall submit to an examination by the Division of Fire Prevention as to their experience and general fitness for such duties, and shall be so certified in writing by the FIRE COMMISSIONER.

It shall be the duty of the ENGINEER, SUPERINTENDENT or other PERSON IN CHARGE, of a building having an interior fire alarm system to test such system daily, immediately after the beginning of business, and to see that all apparatus operated by springs, requiring winding are rewound after each alarm and kept in normal condition for operation.

Rule 11. Duties of Engineer.

Whenever it is necessary to test the fire alarm system at any other time of the day, owing to repairs, etc., being made, the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING will first notify all Foremen of the several floors of the intended test and likewise notify them when the repairs, etc. are completed. This precaution is taken to prevent confusion and excitement, also misunderstanding of the alarm signals.

It shall also be the duty of the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING to sound the interior alarm system at irregular intervals, but not less than once each calendar month, for the purpose of holding practice fire drills. He shall keep on the premises a record of such drills, showing the date when held and the required time for all occupants to reach the street or a point of safety outside the building.

The PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING must immediately acquaint new tenants of the existence of the "Fire Drill" Organization and its purport.

Rule 12. Registration.

The name and address of every person, corporation or co-partnership, that will, under professional service, carry on the trade, business or calling of establishing, maintaining or supervising the "Fire Drill" shall be registered in the Fire Department, which Department shall, upon evidence of fitness, grant a certificate to that effect.

In the Appellate Division, Second Judicial Department, by Ughetta, Acting P. J.; Brennan, Hopkins, Kleinfeld and Christ, JJ., in the Matter of Beach Haven Jewish Center pet. res. (Foley, ap., Levin, intervenor-ap.), Mr. Justice Ughetta stated:

"We find that the Board acted upon a reasonable basis and on sufficient evidence to permit the exercise of its discretionary powers under subdivision (e) of section 7 of said Resolution; and, since, it acted within its jurisdiction, its determination may not be set aside by the court."

(N. Y. Law Journal, February 14, 1963, page 17.)

Matter of Harry Holtzman vs. Board—On March 6, 1962, the Board granted a variance on the application reopened on December 19, 1961 as Volume II, under Section 7a, to permit in a residence use district, the combining of three existing garage buildings, using them conjunctively as a non-storage garage and discontinuing the second floor use; Calendar Number 47-59-BZ—Vol. II; Premises 12-18 College Place, east side, 77 feet, 11 inches north of Love Lane, Block 236, Lot 43, Borough of Brooklyn.

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads:

215-60-SM—Wilray Metal Fabricators Inc., Bronx, N. Y., filed for approval of the material known as Wilray Paint Arrestor Type Spray Booth under the provisions of the Board's Rules Governing the Use of Equipment for Spraying and Drying of Paints, Lacquers, Varnishes.

USE: To lessen the amount of paint overspray ejected from the exhaust stack of a spray booth.

DESCRIPTION: The spray booth is constructed of 18 gauge cold rolled sheet steel panel sections, companion flange construction with matched holes punched in the flanges to facilitate assembly. All bolts are on the outside leaving the interior smooth.

Within the booth, at the rear, a series of baffles made of sheet steel channel sections are installed across the width of the booth in three staggered rows. These baffles form a barrier between the paint spray operation and the exhaust outlet in the booth, and the overspray impinges on them.

INSPECTION AND TEST: A typical spray booth was inspected and tested at the premises of the applicant, 1829 Boone Ave., Bronx. Present were Assistant Engineer George F. Sklenarik, Committee on Test and Messrs Elliot Shapiro and Peter Stein.

The spray booth was approximately 9' 9" wide and 7' high. The three rows of baffles were made of channels 9" wide with a 3" spacing in all directions. The baffles were 6' 6" from the front of the booth and extended from top to bottom. They were readily removable and did not obstruct the sprinkler head.

For the test a clean galvanized plate was fastened to the back wall of the booth at an angle under the exhaust fan opening and 4½' above the floor. This plate was behind the third row of baffles.

A lacquer primer containing 60% solvent and 40% lacquer was sprayed at the baffles for a period of approximately 7 minutes from a gun having a flow rate of 30 gallons per 8 hours. Examination of the plate revealed no lacquer on its surface.

A similar test was conducted for the Department of Air Pollution Control and was approved as per their report of December 24, 1962, a copy of which is part of this record.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends the approval of the material known as Wilray Paint Arrestor Type Spray Booth for use in New York City when installed and operated as described and in accordance with the Board's Rules Governing the Use of Equipment for Spraying and Drying of Paints, Lacquers, Varnishes including the ventilation requirements therein, and also in accordance with the approval of the Department of Air Pollution Control provided that each booth shall bear a label, permanently affixed, reading, "Approved by the Board of Stand-

COURT DECISION.

Matter of Hirschfeld vs. Board:—On July 10, 1962, the Board denied his applications, based on the decisions of the Borough Superintendent, to permit in a business use district, the erection of a four story and cellar building for use as an open type parking garage under Calendar Number 1815-61-BZ; also under Calendar Number 1816-61-A in regard to opening in rear of building; Premises 166-172 West 58th Street, south side, 125 feet east of Seventh Avenue, Block 1010, Lots 57, 58, 58½ and 59 Borough of Manhattan.

At Supreme Court, Special Term, Part I, Mr. Justice Nathan stated, as follows:

"Accordingly, the determination of respondents denying rehearing and reargument of the application of August 20, 1962, is annulled as being unreasonable, arbitrary and not in conformance with the provisions of the new Zoning Resolution and this matter is remanded back to respondents with the direction that rehearing and reargument is to be granted and a determination made not inconsistent with the Zoning Resolution in effect prior to December 15, 1961."

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads: 877-61-SM—Air Wall, Inc., Paramount, California, filed for approval of the material known as Air Wall under the provisions of C26-667.0 Administrative Building Code.

USE: Interior sub-dividing partition.

DESCRIPTION: The walls are light weight panels. The panels are held in place by air pressure and the walls are not attached to the building by tracks, screws, or fastenings of any nature.

The component parts consist of the Air Seal, Valve on the Air Seal, Wood frames, core, faces and bearing surfaces.

The air seal is made from Butyl. It is 0.050 inches in thickness and encased in a 1 inch diameter braided nylon sleeve. The sleeve is for controlling the amount and direction of expansion. The feeder hose is of the same material and has an O.D. of $\frac{7}{16}$ inches and an I.D. of $\frac{1}{4}$ inch.

The air seal valve used on the tubing which provides for the inflation and deflation of the air seal is a Shraeder valve. It is crimped on the feeder hose with a brass ferrule.

The stiles are of wood and are milled tongue and groove from $1\frac{1}{8}$ inch by 2 inch stock. The channels to receive the air seal are fabricated from two pieces of $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 6" stock and a piece 1" x 1" stock. The three pieces are bonded together to form a channel unit.

All wood exceeding 2 sq. inches in area are fire treated in accordance with the requirements of C26-331.0 through C26-339.0 Administrative Building Code.

The core is of expanded asbestos honeycomb—2 inches in thickness.

The faces are 18 gauge aluminum skins bonded to the core material and wood members. The panels are furnished either with the aluminum skin or a face veneer laminated to the skin.

The bearing surfaces—The top bearing surface is $\frac{3}{16}$ " thick wool felt bonded to an extruded aluminum cap which rises or drops with the air pressure within the air seal. The bottom bearing surface is a vinyl base shoe 4" high bonded to the lower end of the panel.

INSPECTION AND TEST: The Committee on Inspection, namely Commissioner Hugh P. Fox and Director

William A. Nolan, visited a display of Air Wall partitions at the New York Coliseum, New York City, N. Y.

It was noted that the air pressure in the air seal must be checked frequently by applying a compressed air container to the air seal valve. There is no method of visually checking, by gauge or other device, the pressure in the seal. An air loss unchecked could result in the partition becoming loose and falling. Also the pressure required to hold this partition in place could not be obtained against a hung ceiling.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee recommends disapproval because of this feature.

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads: 213-62-SA—Iron Fireman Manufacturing Company, Cleveland, Ohio, filed for approval of the appliance known as Iron Fireman Whirlpower Gas-Oil Burner, Models 120-GOSM-B-1.8, 120-GO-B-1.8, 120-GOSM-B-2.1 and 120-GO-B-2.1 under the provisions of Section C19-57.0 Administrative Building Code and Article 12 Administrative Building Code and the Oil Burner rules of the Board.

USE: Conversion gas-oil burners.

DESCRIPTION: These burners are completely factory assembled, wired and tested and designed to burn light fuel oil #2 or gas. They are fully automatic mechanical draft, pressure atomizing oil burners and power gas burners. The burners are equipped with a selector switch that permits only one fuel to be burned at a time.

When fuel oil is burned the oil is delivered to the burner nozzle by means of an integral U.L. approved pump. The oil is ignited by an electric spark. In case of flame failure for any reason the electronic control system (M-H890 or Fireye FJ-2) will shut the burner down in two seconds or less.

Gas, when burned, is supplied to the burner jets through a manual shut off valve, pressure regulator, automatic shut off valve and volume control valve. The gas mixes with air in the combustion head of the burner and is ignited by means of a pilot flame which in turn is ignited by an electric spark. The combustion air is supplied to the burner by a blower fan. Both pilot flame and main burner flame are supervised by the electronic controls which will shut down the burner within two seconds after flame failure.

An integral air flow switch prevents the flow of gas except when the blower fan is delivering air.

The capacity of the burners is as follows:

Model	Gas Fuel	Oil Fuel
120-GOSM-B-1.8	Up to 1,820,000 BTU/hr.	4 to 13 gal/hr.
120-GO-B-1.8	Up to 1,820,000 BTU/hr.	4 to 13 gal/hr.
120-GOSM-B-2.1	Up to 2,100,000 BTU/hr.	4 to 15 gal/hr.
120-GO-B-2.1	Up to 2,100,000 BTU/hr.	4 to 15 gal/hr.

The suffix SM indicates that the burner is designed for flange mounting otherwise a heavy pedestal type base is provided.

INSPECTION AND TEST: All data was examined by Assistant Engineer George F. Sklenarik.

These burners have been tested and approved by Underwriters' Laboratories, File MP 725, MP 810.

RECOMMENDATION: The Committee on Test recommends the approval of the appliance known as Iron Foreman Whirlpower Gas-Oil Burner, Models 120-GOSM-B-1.8, 120-GO-B-1.8, 120-GOSM-B-2.1, and 120-GO-B-2.1 for use in New York City when installed in accordance with the provisions of Article 12 Administrative Building Code and the Oil Burner Rules of the Board provided that each burner shall bear a label permanently affixed, reading, "Approved by the Board of Standards and Appeals for use in New York City under Calendar Number 213-62-SA".

The meter is of the positive displacement four piston type.

The 4 wheel computer is automatic in design and operation with a built-in automatic reset and interlock mechanism.
The computer is operated by a reset lever mechanism in sequence with the operating handle and switch rod mechanism.

The hose is connected to a cast steel yoke which is assembled to the discharge side of the meter. The hose arrangement is of the external type and extends from the outlet side of the dispenser 14' 0" inches to the tip of the nozzle.

Model 132-230—Standard—4 Wheel Computer—Zero Start Ticket Printer

The Model 132-230 is exactly the same in all respects to the Model 132-210 with the exception it is equipped with a zero start ticket printer.

The zero start ticket printer is located on the inside of the dispenser monoframe opposite to the operating handle and computer reset knob. The ticket printer also has a handle which is used to lock the ticket in place before delivery is begun and to unlock the ticket after the delivery has been completed.

There is provided an interlock between the computer and ticket printer. This additional interlock is entirely separate from the regular interlock now provided for the computer and its feature is that it is not possible to interfere or cause extra manipulations when it is desired to make a sale where no ticket is desired.

This interlock also prevents the pump from being restarted until the complete printing of the ticket has been accomplished.

Model 132-240—Standard—4 Wheel Computer—Accumulative Ticket Printer

The Model 132-240 is exactly the same in all respects to interior and exterior and the function and performance of the Model 132-230 with the exception it is equipped with an

Model 132-310—Remote Control—4 Wheel Computer

The Model 132-310 gasoline dispenser is exactly the same in all respects to the interior and exterior and operation of the Model 132-210. However, the Model 132-310 is designed for remote control application, therefore, the motor, pump unit-air separator, and air separator sump have been removed. Air separation takes place at the remote pump unit which pumps product to the dispenser island.

The Model 132-310 is operated in exactly the same sequence as the Model 132-210 to start and stop the remote pump unit motor. However, the operating handle is also connected to a Solenoid-operated feed line valve (Underwriters' Valve) which is operated by a switch rod mechanism to electrically open and close the valve in sequence with the start and stop of the remote control pump unit motor. The Solenoid-operated valve is equipped with a built-in relief device which prevents excessive pressure in the meter and hose which may be caused by expansion of the liquid due to temperature rise in hot weather. The function of the valve also prevents pressure in the hose of any other dispenser connected to the same supply line that is not in operation while dispensing product from the dispenser in operation.

Model 132-330—Remote Control—4 Wheel Computer—Zero Start Ticket Printer

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads: 1098-62-SA—Burntux Corporation, Houston, Texas, filed for approval of the appliance known as Burntux Feminine Hygiene Electric Automatic Incinerator Models C-5 and C-6 under the provisions of C26-191.0 and C26-701.0 Administrative Building Code.

USE: Incinerator for burning sanitary napkins.

DESCRIPTION: The Model C-5 is designed for installation in a lavatory wall and is adaptable for either flush or recess mounting and is generally intended for new construction. The Model C-6 is intended to be installed directly to existing lavatory walls and is known as a surface mounted type.

The Model C-5 is rated 115V—500W and the Model C-6 is rated 116V—600W and the ignition of the article to be disposed of is by means of a cabrod heating element.

The opening of the small loading hopper door permits the acceptance of the article to be consumed, and the opening of the door actuates a red caution light to indicate that the incinerator is in use. The opening of the door also actuates a clock operated switch which in turn energizes the heating element for approximately ten minutes. The article is consumed and is reduced to an ash which drops into a small steel drawer and this ash is removed as required.

INSPECTION AND TEST: The device has been approved by the Underwriters Laboratories under MH 7040. The applicant states that the equipment has also been approved by the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity and also the Department of Air Pollution Control.

RECOMMENDATION: On the basis of the data submitted by the applicant, the Committee on Test recommends the approval of the appliance known as Burntux Feminine Hygiene Electric Automatic Incinerator Models C-5 and C-6 for voluntary use in New York City on condition that it be connected to a legal chimney as required and further that each appliance bear a label permanently affixed reading "Approved by the Board of Standards and Appeals for use in New York City under Calendar Number 1098-62-SA".

RULES

Fire Drill Rules, Adopted by the Board of Standards and Appeals, October 5, 1923

(593-23-SR)

DEFINITION OF "FIRE DRILL"

The method and practice of the systematic and orderly vacating of a building by its occupants in case of emergency, panic or fire in the least possible time—by the nearest safe means of exit—and the use of fire appliances which shall be provided for the extinguishing or retarding of fire and the safeguarding of human life.

Rule 1.

In all buildings as defined in Article 1, Section 10 of the Labor Law in which fire drills are required pursuant to Section 279 thereof and in any other building in which such drills are required by the Fire Commissioner pursuant to the power conferred in section 491 of the New York City Charter, it shall be the duty of the owners, lessees or tenants to conduct fire drills monthly and at such other times as the Fire Commissioner may direct.

For the purpose of conducting such fire drills the owner or tenants shall appoint from among their employees such responsible and dependable persons, male or female, who shall efficiently perform the duties of the various positions of the fire drill organization, as specified on the accompanying chart.

It shall be the duty of the owner or tenant to enter in the blank spaces provided for that purpose in said chart the names of persons so selected and post said chart and copies of the rules in a conspicuous place.

RULES

Rule 2. Duties of Foreman.

The Foreman or Person in Charge shall direct, enforce and have full charge of the "Fire Drill" in every factory on each floor. Each day before work is begun he shall see that extinguishers, fire hose, fire buckets, etc., are in readiness for use, exit doors are unlocked, aisles are free from obstruction, that stairways, halls, etc., are properly lighted, and shall remedy any dangerous condition found to exist. Immediately after work is commenced he shall check up the Fire Drill Organization list and note if the regularly assigned persons are present; if any are found to be absent, he shall assign other employees (if practicable) to perform their duties.

He shall immediately notify new employees of the existence of the Fire Drill Organization and give them the necessary instructions as to the duties they are to perform, etc.

He shall be familiar with the operation and location of the interior alarm signal box on his floor.

He shall listen for the test signal each morning at the appointed hour and in the event of the test signal not being heard he shall communicate with the superintendent or other person in charge of the building and advise him of the fact. The (Floor Captain's) Foreman's orders are final as to the carrying out of the fire drill on his particular floor.

Rule 3. Duties of Watchmen.

The WATCHMEN shall see that all doors and windows are closed so as to prevent the spread of fire. The WATCHMEN shall be the only persons permitted to remain on the floor during the progress of a fire drill and do so at their own risk. For ordinary purposes only one watchman and a substitute shall be designated. In special cases, however, extra watchmen may be assigned by consent in writing from Fire Commissioner.

Rule 4. Duties of Searchers.

The MALE AND FEMALE SEARCHERS shall search all toilets, dressing rooms and emergency rooms used and frequented by their sex and all other portions of the floor and order all persons, except those authorized to remain, to leave the premises. They are to take care of and assist all persons who may faint or be disabled.

SEARCHERS shall leave the floor immediately after the last squad leaves.

Rule 5. Duties of Street Alarm Box Runner.

The STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall be familiar with the location of the nearest city fire alarm box and know how it is operated.

In ordinary practice fire drills the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall report to the Foreman for orders, and if his services are not required he shall promptly file out of the premises with the other occupants.

Only when a fire actually occurs on his floor, or when ordered to do so by the Foreman, shall the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER proceed to the street alarm box and send in the fire alarm.

Rule 6. Duties of Fire Brigade.

The fire brigade shall have full charge of the operation of all auxiliary fire fighting apparatus and shall endeavor to extinguish, or at least hold in check until the arrival of the Fire Department, any fire that may occur. When it is necessary for the fire brigade to respond to different floors in the building they shall not use the stairways or fire escapes while the occupants are escaping from the premises.

Rule 7. Duties of Exit Guards.

The EXIT GUARDS shall station themselves at all exit doors leading to fire escapes, stairways, and other means of escape immediately upon the sounding of the alarm. There shall be two guards for each exit, if practicable; one to stand in the hallway holding back the door and the other directly inside on the floor. They are to keep the exit doors open and direct the movements of the persons using these exits and prevent congestion.

EXIT GUARDS shall remain at their stations until all of the occupants of the building have passed their station. Then close their doors and pass out of the building. Upon signal for the occupants to return, EXIT GUARDS shall take their designated stations and remain there until all persons have returned to their respective floors.

Rule 8. Duties of Squad Monitors.

The SQUAD MONITORS, as soon as the alarm is sounded, shall see that the employees under their charge quickly form into line, two abreast, and numbering not more than thirty to each squad. They shall see that all aisles and passageways are cleared of obstructions.

Note: Chairs, stools, baskets, etc., should be pushed under or placed on top of work benches.

MONITORS shall proceed at the head of their respective squads to the exit assigned, and then march up or down the stairs or to other exits as directed by the EXIT GUARDS.

On reaching the sidewalk MONITORS shall keep their squads in order and lead them a reasonable distance from the building, so as not to cause congestion and interference with fire apparatus. When the proper signal is given they shall return to their respective floors at head of their squads.

RULES

MONITORS will at all times see that those under their charge conduct themselves in a respectable and orderly manner.

Rule 9. Holding of Drills.

FIRE DRILLS shall be held at least once each month at varied hours of the day, and all of the occupants shall participate therein simultaneously. Such drills shall conduct all occupants to a place of safety.

Where dual operation interior fire alarm systems are installed as permitted under Rule 10.1 of the interior fire alarm rules of the Board of Standards and Appeals, the fire drill conducted each month shall include all of the persons on the premises engaged at work for a factory, and drills shall be conducted at least twice, each year in which all of the persons on the premises shall participate simultaneously.

Rule 10. Duties of Owner.

It shall be the duty of the OWNER, LESSEE OR TENANT OF THE BUILDING or his authorized agent or their representatives to personally observe that the "Fire Drill" is held simultaneously on every floor of the building and the participation therein of every occupant of such building. Any FIRE DRILL in which all of the occupants do not participate shall not be considered as complying with the LAW, except as otherwise provided in these rules.

The person or persons representing the OWNERS, LESSEE OR TENANT, who supervises the FIRE DRILL at the building shall submit to an examination by the Division of Fire Prevention as to their experience and general fitness for such duties, and shall be so certified in writing by the FIRE COMMISSIONER.

It shall be the duty of the ENGINEER, SUPERINTENDENT or other PERSON IN CHARGE, of a building having an interior fire alarm system to test such system daily, immediately after the beginning of business, and to see that all apparatus operated by springs, requiring winding are rewound after each alarm and kept in normal condition for operation.

Rule 11. Duties of Engineer.

Whenever it is necessary to test the fire alarm system at any other time of the day, owing to repairs, etc., being made, the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING will first notify all Foremen of the several floors of the intended test and likewise notify them when the repairs, etc. are completed. This precaution is taken to prevent confusion and excitement, also misunderstanding of the alarm signals.

It shall also be the duty of the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING to sound the interior alarm system at irregular intervals, but not less than once each calendar month, for the purpose of holding practice fire drills. He shall keep on the premises a record of such drills, showing the date when held and the required time for all occupants to reach the street or a point of safety outside the building.

The PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING must immediately acquaint new tenants of the existence of the "Fire Drill" Organization and its purport.

Rule 12. Registration.

The name and address of every person, corporation or co-partnership, that will, under professional service, carry on the trade, business or calling of establishing, maintaining or supervising the "Fire Drill" shall be registered in the Fire Department, which Department shall, upon evidence of fitness, grant a certificate to that effect.

THE RESOLUTION—

WHEREAS, the report of a Committee on Test reads:

935-62-SM—Etna Pozzolana Corporation, Lawrence, L. I., New York, filed for approval of the material known as Etnair under the provisions of C26-191.0 Administrative Building Code.

USE: Air entraining agent for portland cement concrete. DESCRIPTION: The material Etnair is a solution of neutralized Vinsol resin and is marketed in liquid form.

INSPECTION AND TEST: The applicant has submitted a report of test as conducted by Certified Testing Laboratories, Inc. The tests were comparative tests made between concretes made with and without the air entraining agent. The results showed that when the agent was added to the extent of $\frac{3}{4}$ oz. per sack of cement in a sand and gravel concrete the strengths were increased at both the 7th and 28th day tests and when added to the amount of $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. per sack of cement to a sand and approved lightweight aggregate the strengths were decreased by approximately 1% for 7 days and 2% for 28 days. The complete report is on file with and is part of the record.

JOHN A. DARTS,

RULES

Fire Drill Rules, Adopted by the Board of Standards and Appeals, October 5, 1923

(593-23-SR)

DEFINITION OF "FIRE DRILL"

The method and practice of the systematic and orderly vacating of a building by its occupants in case of emergency, panic or fire in the least possible time—by the nearest safe means of exit—and the use of fire appliances which shall be provided for the extinguishing or retarding of fire and the safeguarding of human life.

Rule 1.

In all buildings as defined in Article 1, Section 10 of the Labor Law in which fire drills are required pursuant to Section 279 thereof and in any other building in which such drills are required by the Fire Commissioner pursuant to the power conferred in section 491 of the New York City Charter, it shall be the duty of the owners, lessees or tenants to conduct fire drills monthly and at such other times as the Fire Commissioner may direct.

For the purpose of conducting such fire drills the owner or tenants shall appoint from among their employees such responsible and dependable persons, male or female, who shall efficiently perform the duties of the various positions of the fire drill organization, as specified on the accompanying chart.

It shall be the duty of the owner or tenant to enter in the blank spaces provided for that purpose in said chart the names of persons so selected and post said chart and copies of the rules in a conspicuous place.

RULES

Rule 2. Duties of Foreman.

The Foreman or Person in Charge shall direct, enforce and have full charge of the "Fire Drill" in every factory on each floor. Each day before work is begun he shall see that extinguishers, fire hose, fire buckets, etc., are in readiness for use, exit doors are unlocked, aisles are free from obstruction, that stairways, halls, etc., are properly lighted, and shall remedy any dangerous condition found to exist. Immediately after work is commenced he shall check up the Fire Drill Organization list and note if the regularly assigned persons are present; if any are found to be absent, he shall assign other employees (if practicable) to perform their duties.

He shall immediately notify new employees of the existence of the Fire Drill Organization and give them the necessary instructions as to the duties they are to perform, etc.

He shall be familiar with the operation and location of the interior alarm signal box on his floor.

He shall listen for the test signal each morning at the appointed hour and in the event of the test signal not being heard he shall communicate with the superintendent or other person in charge of the building and advise him of the fact. The (Floor Captain's) Foreman's orders are final as to the carrying out of the fire drill on his particular floor.

Rule 3. Duties of Watchmen.

The WATCHMEN shall see that all doors and windows are closed so as to prevent the spread of fire. The WATCHMEN shall be the only persons permitted to remain on the floor during the progress of a fire drill and do so at their own risk. For ordinary purposes only one watchman and a substitute shall be designated. In special cases, however, extra watchmen may be assigned by consent in writing from Fire Commissioner.

Rule 4. Duties of Searchers.

The MALE AND FEMALE SEARCHERS shall search all toilets, dressing rooms and emergency rooms used and frequented by their sex and all other portions of the floor and order all persons, except those authorized to remain, to leave the premises. They are to take care of and assist all persons who may faint or be disabled.

SEARCHERS shall leave the floor immediately after the last squad leaves.

Rule 5. Duties of Street Alarm Box Runner.

The STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall be familiar with the location of the nearest city fire alarm box and know how it is operated.

In ordinary practice fire drills the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER shall report to the Foreman for orders, and if his services are not required he shall promptly file out of the premises with the other occupants.

Only when a fire actually occurs on his floor, or when ordered to do so by the Foreman, shall the STREET-ALARM-BOX-RUNNER proceed to the street alarm box and send in the fire alarm.

Rule 6. Duties of Fire Brigade.

The fire brigade shall have full charge of the operation of all auxiliary fire fighting apparatus and shall endeavor to extinguish, or at least hold in check until the arrival of the Fire Department, any fire that may occur. When it is necessary for the fire brigade to respond to different floors in the building they shall not use the stairways or fire escapes while the occupants are escaping from the premises.

Rule 7. Duties of Exit Guards.

The EXIT GUARDS shall station themselves at all exit doors leading to fire escapes, stairways, and other means of escape immediately upon the sounding of the alarm. There shall be two guards for each exit, if practicable; one to stand in the hallway holding back the door and the other directly inside on the floor. They are to keep the exit doors open and direct the movements of the persons using these exits and prevent congestion.

EXIT GUARDS shall remain at their stations until all of the occupants of the building have passed their station. Then close their doors and pass out of the building. Upon signal for the occupants to return, EXIT GUARDS shall take their designated stations and remain there until all persons have returned to their respective floors.

Rule 8. Duties of Squad Monitors.

The SQUAD MONITORS, as soon as the alarm is sounded, shall see that the employees under their charge quickly form into line, two abreast, and numbering not more than thirty to each squad. They shall see that all aisles and passageways are cleared of obstructions.

Note: Chairs, stools, baskets, etc., should be pushed under or placed on top of work benches.

MONITORS shall proceed at the head of their respective squads to the exit assigned, and then march up or down the stairs or to other exits as directed by the EXIT GUARDS.

On reaching the sidewalk MONITORS shall keep their squads in order and lead them a reasonable distance from the building, so as not to cause congestion and interference with fire apparatus. When the proper signal is given they shall return to their respective floors at head of their squads.

RULES

MONITORS will at all times see that those under their charge conduct themselves in a respectable and orderly manner.

Rule 9. Holding of Drills.

FIRE DRILLS shall be held at least once each month at varied hours of the day, and all of the occupants shall participate therein simultaneously. Such drills shall conduct all occupants to a place of safety.

Where dual operation interior fire alarm systems are installed as permitted under Rule 10.1 of the interior fire alarm rules of the Board of Standards and Appeals, the fire drill conducted each month shall include all of the persons on the premises engaged at work for a factory, and drills shall be conducted at least twice, each year in which all of the persons on the premises shall participate simultaneously.

Rule 10. Duties of Owner.

It shall be the duty of the OWNER, LESSEE OR TENANT OF THE BUILDING or his authorized agent or their representatives to personally observe that the "Fire Drill" is held simultaneously on every floor of the building and the participation therein of every occupant of such building. Any FIRE DRILL in which all of the occupants do not participate shall not be considered as complying with the LAW, except as otherwise provided in these rules.

The person or persons representing the OWNERS, LESSEE OR TENANT, who supervises the FIRE DRILL at the building shall submit to an examination by the Division of Fire Prevention as to their experience and general fitness for such duties, and shall be so certified in writing by the FIRE COMMISSIONER.

It shall be the duty of the ENGINEER, SUPERINTENDENT or other PERSON IN CHARGE, of a building having an interior fire alarm system to test such system daily, immediately after the beginning of business, and to see that all apparatus operated by springs, requiring winding are rewound after each alarm and kept in normal condition for operation.

Rule 11. Duties of Engineer.

Whenever it is necessary to test the fire alarm system at any other time of the day, owing to repairs, etc., being made, the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING will first notify all Foremen of the several floors of the intended test and likewise notify them when the repairs, etc. are completed. This precaution is taken to prevent confusion and excitement, also misunderstanding of the alarm signals.

It shall also be the duty of the PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING to sound the interior alarm system at irregular intervals, but not less than once each calendar month, for the purpose of holding practice fire drills. He shall keep on the premises a record of such drills, showing the date when held and the required time for all occupants to reach the street or a point of safety outside the building.

The PERSON IN CHARGE OF BUILDING must immediately acquaint new tenants of the existence of the "Fire Drill" Organization and its purport.

Rule 12. Registration.

The name and address of every person, corporation or co-partnership, that will, under professional service, carry on the trade, business or calling of establishing, maintaining or supervising the "Fire Drill" shall be registered in the Fire Department, which Department shall, upon evidence of fitness, grant a certificate to that effect.

1029-57-SM—Kesko Products, Inc., Bristol, Indiana, filed for approval of the material known as Kesko Thermo Sash and Horizontally-Pivoted Double Hung Aluminum Window under the provisions of C26-650.0 Administrative Building Code. The application was subject for dismissal December 18, 1962, but was removed from the dismissal list at the request of the applicant.

USE: Aluminum windows (non rated).

DESCRIPTION: The thermo sash is fabricated of aluminum with a center of marine hull grade, douglas fir veneer. The insulating members are made of plywood, overlaid with phenol type resin impregnated fiber and bonded together with waterproof glue, all coped and completely enclosed with aluminum extrusions.

The mullions, muntin bars and glazing beads are of 63S extruded aluminum of a minimum thickness of 0.062 inches.

The double hung window is so designed that the upper and lower sash are reversible when in the down position so that all cleaning can be done from the inside. All members are constructed of 6063 alloy aluminum with a minimum thickness of 0.093 inches.

All horizontal sash members are extruded 638 tubular shapes with a minimum wall thickness of 0.093 inches except the glazing beads and vertical sash members which have a wall thickness of 0.062 inches.

INSPECTION AND TEST: Details of construction were examined by Assistant Engineer John A. Darts, and it was noted that the construction contained the plywood as described above. The windows are tested to meet AWMA specifications.

COURT DECISION.

Matter of Grimaldi vs. Foley:—On May 2, 1961, the Board granted a variance under Sections 7f and 7i of the Zoning Resolution, to permit in a retail use district, the erection and maintenance of a gasoline service station, lubritorium, minor auto repairs, car washing, storage room office and sales, ground sign parking and storage of motor vehicles of the pleasure-car type only for a term of twenty years; Calendar Number 707-60-BZ; Premises 5201-5215 Avenue N and 1643-1653 East 52nd Street, northeast corner, Block 7877, Lots 4, 5, 7 and 9 Borough of Brooklyn.

In Article 78 proceeding, petitioner sought to annul determination of the Board. At Supreme Court, Special Term, Part I, Mr. Justice Eilperin dismissed the petition.

(N. Y. Law Journal, January 10, 1963, page 18).

The Appellate Division, Second Judicial Department, By Kleinfeld, Acting, P. J., Christ, Brennan, Hill and Hopkins, JJ. in the Matter of Grimaldi, pet-ap (Foley, res; Fifty States Realty Corporation, intervenor-res) rendered the following decision:

"Motion by appellants to dispense with printing of the minutes and exhibits denied. While ostensibly appellants seek to dispense with printing, actually their purpose is to abridge the record; such an application should be made at Special Term. Hence, the denial of this motion is without prejudice to an application at the Special Term to abridge the record, and without prejudice to any further motion in this court after disposition by the Special Term of such application, if made (cf. Young v. Taber, 9 App. Div. 2d 631; People ex rel. Lowenstein v. Lowenstein, 281 App. Div. 699). Motion by appellants to enlarge time to perfect their appeal granted; time enlarged to the May term beginning April 29, 1963; appeal ordered on the calendar for said term."

(N. Y. Law Journal, February 20, 1963, page 17).

At Supreme Court, Special Term, Part I, Mr. Justice DiGiovanna rendered the following decision:

"The prior granting of a motion on default to abridge the record is vacated and upon consideration of all the papers submitted the motion is denied. The court agrees with the respondent that it is necessary for the incorporation of all of the papers in the record before the appellate court. Submit order."

(N. Y. Law Journal, March 21, 1963, page 16).
